Mary & Jane Hawley, born on Morris Hawley Farm, were sisters. An obit. states that Mary, born in Richmond Twp. mar. Lycurgus Meeks. Jane, mar. a Clark, was mother of Frank Clark, of Belknap. Both girls were born about 1835. They may have been daus. of James Hawley, because Mary's son was named James Hawley Meeks. This could not have been James Edward (see above), but could have been James Freeman or James Castle Hawley. It is probable that he was the latter, as this James was "of Richmond" when he drew 200 acres in 1833.

Dear Mr Armstrong:-

I had better thank you for your two letters on the North Country. I have enjoyed both & also Mrs Flecker's study.

In looking the situation over, chiefly the family of Owen Switzer & Jane Vankoughnet, I knew a man who lived near Bath about 1940-50. He was a Switzer. At that time he was about 50 or 60, and as far as I can be sure, he worked at the Serylene plant at Millhaven (maybe) and later removed to a community near London, Ont.
He used to talk about some man who persuaded a Vankough-net young woman to poison her husband. As a result a person was hanged at Harrowsmith. As I recall this Jane Vankoughnet was involved in the crime. I have tried for years to recall this Switzer & the story. What do you know about it, if anything?

I know this Owen Smith and the families she mentions, as I as a young man lived in Verona and knew all these people.

So, dear Sir, I thank you sincerely for your interest. And please keep it going.

In mid-twentieth century, the parishioners had decreased, due to deaths and removal to other areas. Finally, the church was closed ~~and sold~~. Not long after the building was sold and has become the home of the new owner.

Over the years families have moved away. Membership has decreased and many have passed to the Great Beyond. Finally in 1973 the church was closed and the altar removed to Kingston. Shortly after the building was leased to a parishioner, former parishioner living elsewhere and has been transformed into a summer cottage. At the same time the Gothic style windows have been replaced by normal type.

OREN SWITZER AND JANE VANFALKENBURGH as supplied by Mrs. Ida Tindall, some years ago.

Mrs. Tindall, now a resident of Parkview Nursing Home, Stouffville is enjoying life and her mind remains very active. We visited her in February while on our way to London to attend the concert presented by the Ontario Youth Chorus and Orchestra of which our son Malcolm was a member.

William Henry Switzer married Lavina Jane Mintz. They lived at Gooderham. In 1926, when I was five years of age we visited them. My memories of the trip to Gooderham remain quite vivid in my mind. My father had just learned to drive a car (or had he?); we still had 60 miles to go at sundown. Every time he climbed a hill he stalled the car and my mother had to get out with the flashlight and find a stone to put behind the wheel before he could get that old "STAR" to go on up the hill. My mother was afraid that a bear would get her. We arrived at midnight. Aunt Jane was expecting us and gave us our meal. I remember the excitement the next morning of uncle Will's killing a huge snake. A few years ago while visiting in the Haliburton area we went back to see if we could find the house. I knew it immediately, but somehow it was much smaller than I had remembered it. I remember saying to my husband when we left that it was a wonder that the house was still standing as the son who was living there had a terrific fire in the stove (in July) and the ashes were falling on the floor. A couple of weeks after that, the house burned to the ground.

Martha Switzer, the eldest of this family is in a nursing home at Orillia. She will be 96 years of age this year and from what we learned from Ida, is still mentally alert. Many of this family still live around Gooderham, but I only know Ida and her daughter and grandchildren. Martha has visited my home at Bath with Ida and my parents, and I have pictures of them when Ida lived at Goodwood. Charlie Tindall was a very mild mannered man and one we liked very much. Family traits have carried through the generations. My mother told me that her mother rocked my aunt Jennie to sleep and died before morning. The ambitious streak has remained in the family and the very quick pronunciation of words. The allergy problem has also remained. Ida and her daughter are hay fever sufferers. No one in my family had it, but I have Menniere's, which is related. My son Malcolm has to have shots once a month every month, but it certainly doesn't hinder his scholastic ability. He will be entering university with an average of 86.5. He plays in the Napanee District Secondary School Senior Concert Band which were chosen to represent Eastern Ontario at the World's Fair in Spokane last year and was chosen to be a member of the Ontario Youth Chorus this year. Our ancestors have passed to us a goodly heritage.

Sept. 8/75 Malcolm now attending Queen's University. He was awarded the Celanese Scholarship, at $700.00 on his behalf and $300.00 extra to the University. This will be renewed each year if his average is kept at the same level--88.5%

OREN SWITZER - Jane VanFalkenburgh (VanVolkenburgh) daughter of Paul VanVolkenburgh and his 1st wife, Meribeth Merrill

Mary Anne, youngest child by first wife, born 1858

- married George Washington Reppard, a civil war veteran of Shamokin, Pa., in 1882

1. Mary Rosetta, born March 19, 1884, married Arnold Clair Weeks, Jan. 1, 1907. Clair Weeks died May, 1973 and Etta died Feb. 21, 1974.

Mary Anne Reppard died at age 34 from galloping consumption and is buried in Parham cemetery. George Reppard remarried to Lucinda Commodore and he died 48 years ago. He is also buried in Parham cemetery. He was blind for many years before he died. Relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Snider of Verona, raised Etta. She was baptized, Mary Rosetta Snider, but was never legally adopted.

2. Wilbert Washington, married Sarah Carr. He was a C.N. engineer. Both are deceased

3. Jennie, married Lester Alton. He is deceased. She lives in Kingston with her daughter Ruth, who is unmarried.

Jennie was raised by her mother's first cousin, Mrs. Allen Snider and Mr. Snider. Allen was the son of Douglas and Lorinda Snider. My mother considered Allen Snider her foster brother, while her sister Jennie, considered him to be "dad". My brothers and sisters called him "uncle Allen" while my cousins called him "grandpa". Allen Snider's wife, Ella Switzer was raised a Quaker and observed their way of life. I have never heard her make an unkind remark about anyone. She smoked a pipe, supposedly for the tooth ache.

The attached is an attempt on my part to record the various family trees connected with my family. It is also a contribution to the Library at Dominion Headquarters and to the Bay of Quinte Branch of the U.E.L. Association of Canada, of which my husband, Crawford Hogle Smith and I are members. Our children, Susan Anne Smith, Jennifer Karen Smith (now Clarkson) and Malcolm Crawford Smith, wish to make application to the Bay of Quinte Branch and the attached will furnish the necessary proofs for all three applicants. Other members of my family may also wish to join.

The attached pages include the Baptismal Certificate of my great-grandmother Mary Hannah Hawley Meeks, her parents Marriage Certificate and two affidavits from my grandfather Reppard's army records. My mother's father, George Washington Reppard was a civil war veteran. He came to Canada to search for employment and was told that there was a mine at Iron Ore Junction which was employing experienced miners. His former home was near Shamokin, Penn., in the coal mining district. When he and a chum arrived at this village (now known as Godfrey, north of Kingston), they did not find employment, but found a friendly family by the name of Good-fellow who took them in. He married my grandmother, Mary Anne Switzer and after her death, married Patience Card. My mother remembers her mother's funeral (or should I say remembered?). The church at Parham was undergoing repairs and her funeral was held in the camp meeting tent, and she used to tell me of the agony of being left without a mother at such an early age. When she went to live with relatives who were old enough to be her grandparents, it was a trying experience for a young child. As a result, my mother found it difficult to express affection.

As a child we used to drive from Bell Rock to Sharbot Lake to visit my grandfather Reppard, who was blind from the effects of the civil war. He received a pension and was probably in a better financial position than most old persons of that day. Many memories flood my mind of these visits--- the horses refusal to cross the floating bridge just south of Sharbot Lake and of my father leading them across. I remember my grandfather's funeral quite vividly, although I was only about seven years of age. We met the funeral procession just north of Parham, where we drove in our touring "Star" car. I remember my mother and sister burst into tears. The funeral was held in Parham church and I was so happy to see my cousin who lived in Belleville, that we whispered all through it and I was severely reprimanded for it after. There was a choir which sang a special selection "Is There Anyone to Help Us, Who Can Understand Our Pain When Our Hearts Are Laden Down With Sin and Woe". He is buried beside my grandmother in Parham cemetery but I do not remember the burial.

A few years ago I went on a pilgrimage to Sunbury, Penn. to try to locate relatives by the name of "Reppard", but to no avail. We were in Washington, D.C. and in an attempt to trace the Reppard family, I made an appointment and visited the Archives. I later obtained much of my grandfather's army file, including his application for pension, a copy from the Reppard family bible and the Declaration of his death.

I have always enjoyed telling people that my grandfather's name was George Washington and could see the disbelief on their faces when I told them that I could prove it.

Mary Hannah Meeks, was known to the countryside as "Old Mum Meeks". She would never allow her children to call her "grandma" and they were taught to call her "MuM", a name which stayed with her. I have been told that she wore her hair in ringlets--the curly hair has passed from one generation to another and four out of five in our family have curly hair. My uncle Leonard has always told me that she was the first white woman to live north of the "Drowned Lands". The part of this section so referred to is just north of the Long Swamp at the edge of the Napanee River. This swamp is part of the Napanee Conservation Area and extends from Verona to Enterprise, a distance of about ten miles, and it is at least a half mile wide. In the early spring this swamp floods and the road from Moscow to Bell Rock crosses the Napanee River about half way through the swamp. It is absolutely impassable in the spring of the year and is referred to as "The Drowned Lands". Whether she was the first white woman to live there is debatable, but I have heard members of the family relate that she had told them that she lived in a shack when she first arrived there and that the wolves howled all night long.

My grandfather James Hawley, was nicknamed "Teddy Bear" by his mother and ⁱⁿ later years he was always referred to as "Tedge Meeks". He was a rough spoken old gentleman who loved to hunt, pick berries, and look after my blind grandmother. Although he frightened many persons with his gruff character, one of my most pleasant memories of him will be remembering his sitting by lamplight, with his hat on, reading to my blind grandma. Although his early education was very limited, he read the papers diligently and could converse quite fluently about those damned "Russians" as he called them. He always referred to Moscow as Ma's cow.

My parents, Etta & Clair Meeks were remarkable to the day of their death. My mother spent her last few years recovering from serious arterial surgery, then a broken hip, then a broken pelvis. My father dedicated his life to waiting on her and allowing her to remain in her own home. This pressure resulted in a heart attack and he passed away very suddenly from a series of them after being taken to the hospital by ambulance. This resulted in my mother's loss of interest and her mind became very confused. She was placed in a nursing home and was only there a few days when the arterial graft began deteriorating and she died a horrible death two weeks later. This has engraved on my mind the necessity of allowing old people to die in dignity and peace. Her first operation was considered a miracle by the staff of Kingston General Hospital, but what a horrible price to pay for a bit of medical knowledge!

All of my ancestors as I remember them have been blessed with long years of life, and as a result I probably have gleaned more information about them than would be possible in many families. My father's only brother is still living and in a nursing home in Kingston, but he can still relate to the "good old days". My father's uncle's second wife, Mrs. Chester Snider of Napanee is still living. She nursed her husband's aged parents in their latter years and she too can fill us in on many incidents.

I shall now begin the task of tracing other family trees of my family--the Scrivers, Pickles, Solomon Ball, Joseph Jenckes, John Grant, John Card, Sgt. Johnson and many others, as well as those from my husband's side: Lakes, Hogles, Cadmans, etc. I shall donate these to Headquarters as I accomplish this task and shall also place a copy in the files of the Bay of Quinte Branch.

Those buried in Meeks cemetery at Bell Rock, are:

Lycurgus Meeks
Mary Meeks
Leonard Meeks sr.
Lynn Meeks Grant
Martha Meeks York
Children of Edith Meeks and Alex Parker
* Baby daughter of Leonard & Stella Meeks.

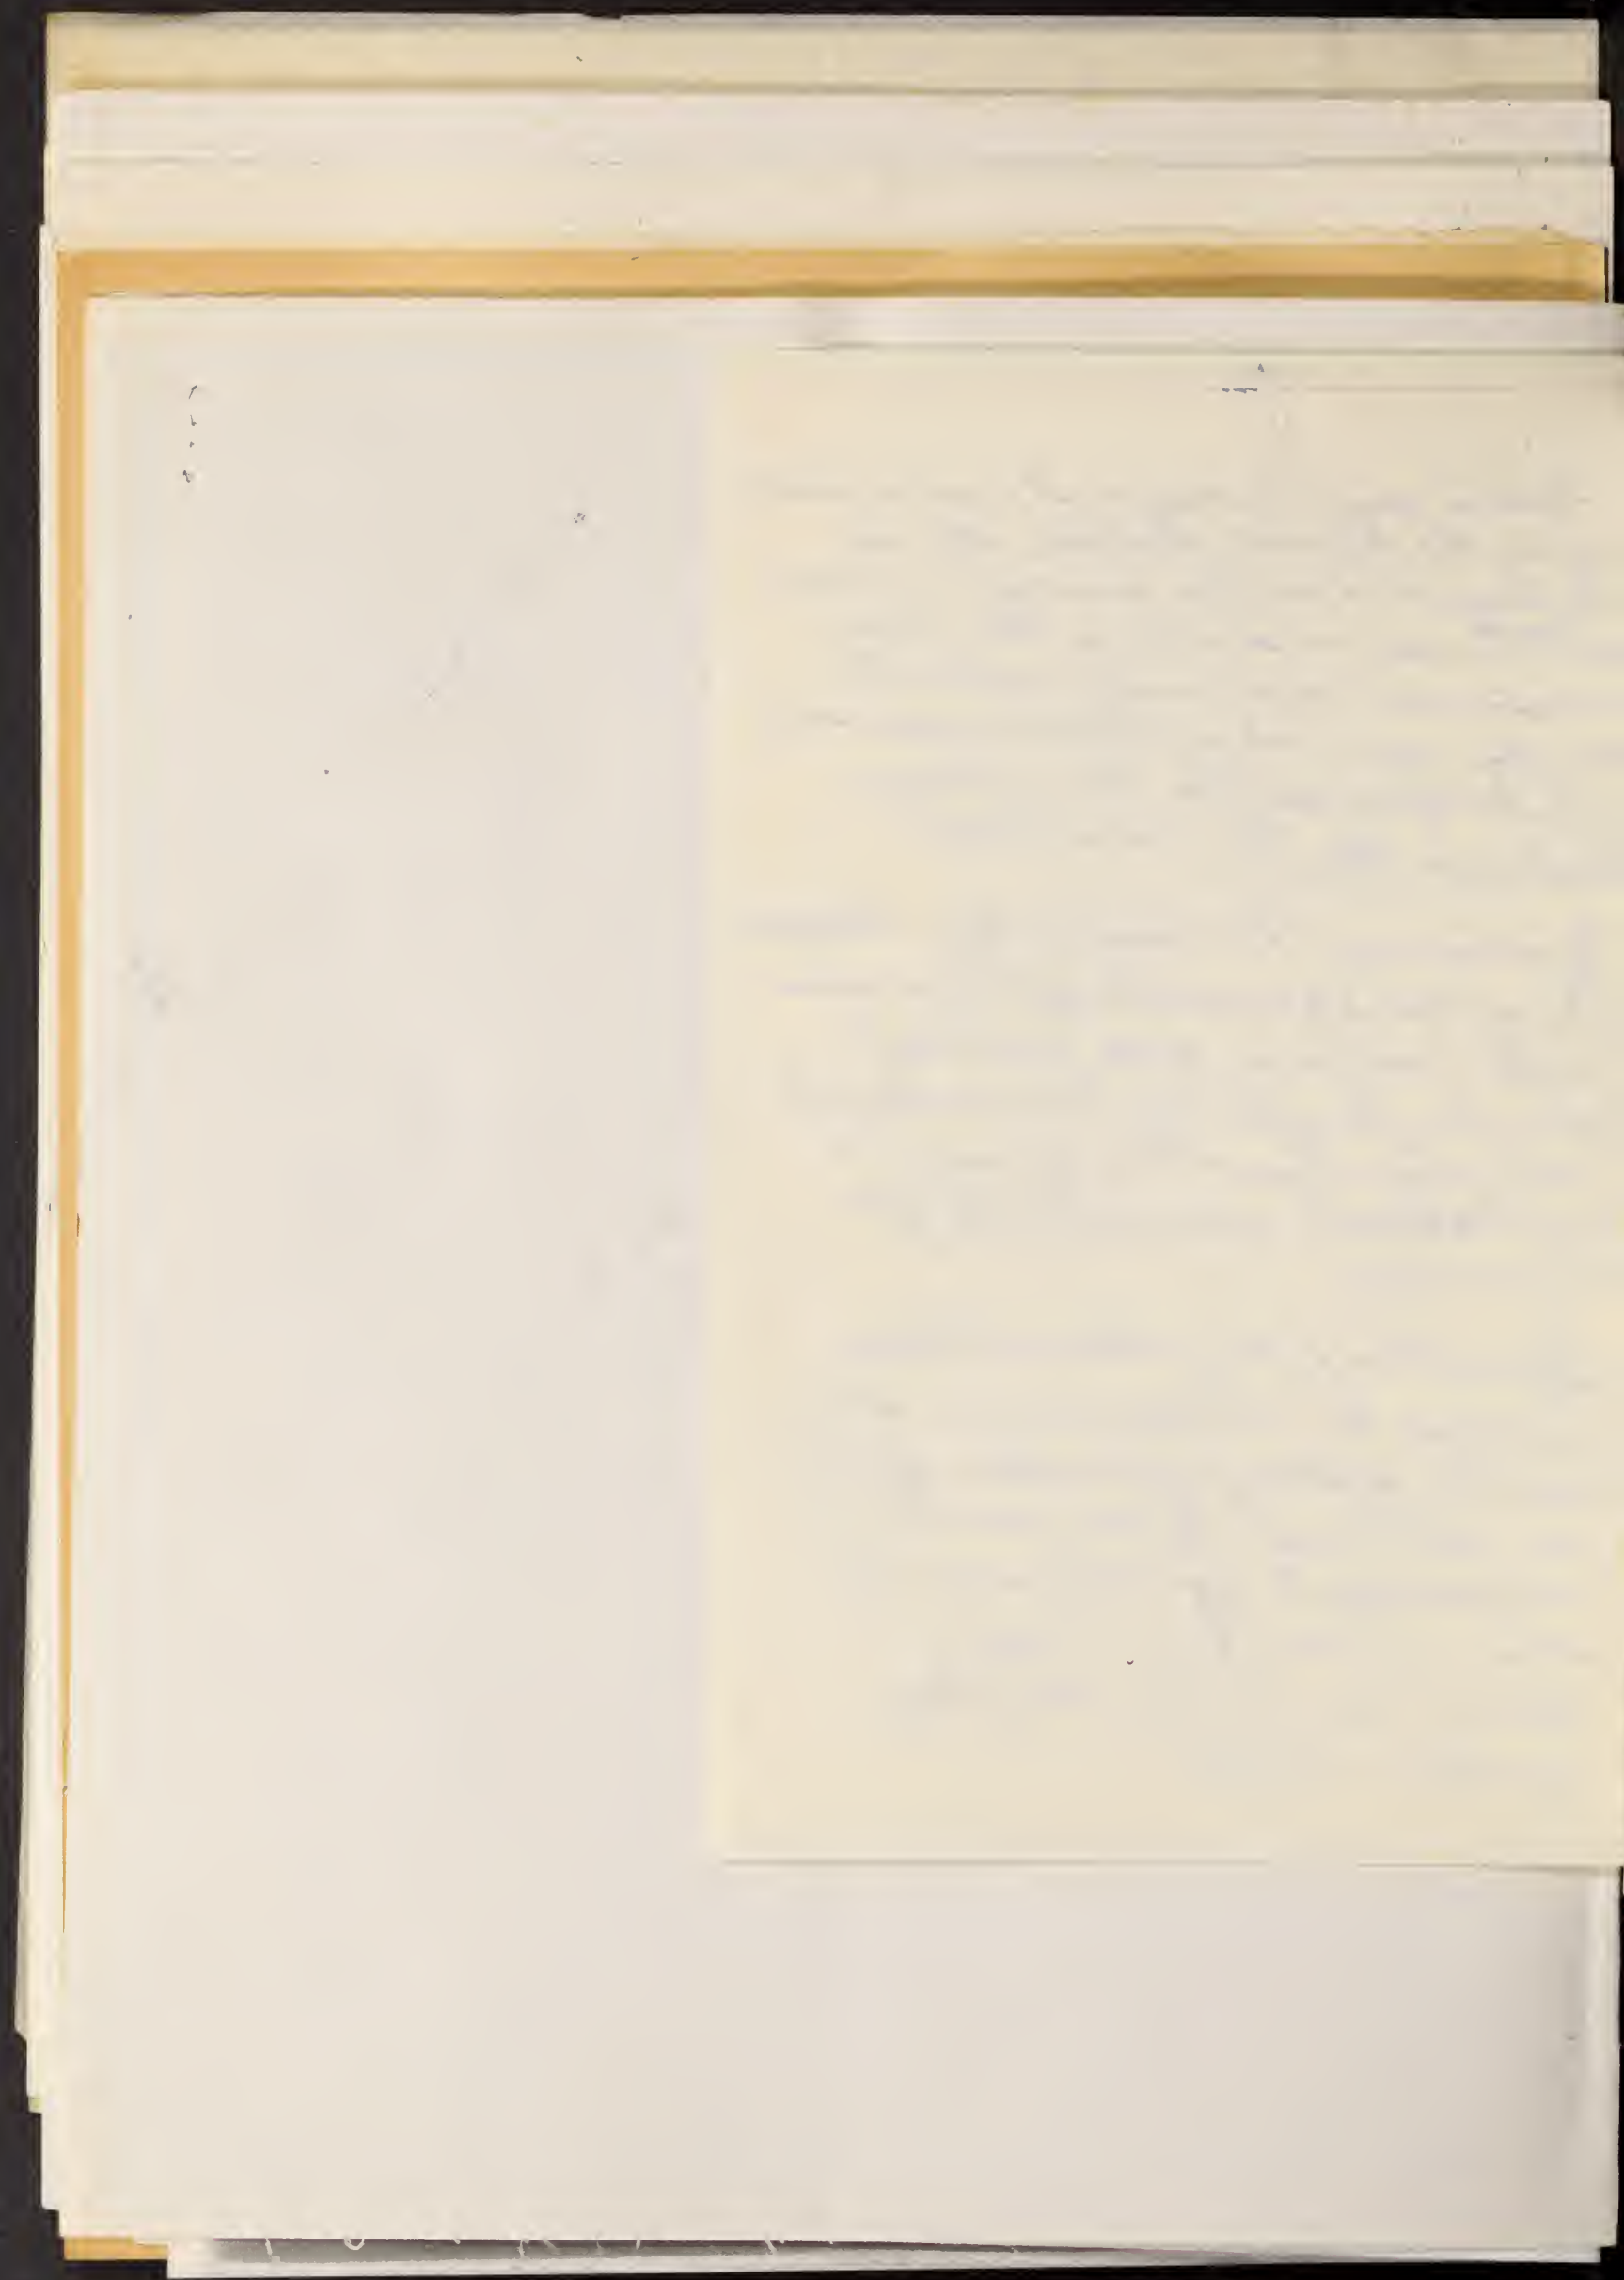

Dr. Durlight's grandmother
Howie was raised on the lower 100 acres now owned by Oakland Meeks, formerly owned by Clair Meeks and before him -
Jas. York. Geo. Reynolds, etc.
"I could show you where the house was if you haven't seen the spot." I could remember as a child, going to the sap bush and I always went by this high spot and pictured in my mind just what this old log house looked like."

Mother says the original road went up by the church and she thinks it came out on the concession near this ^(house) house and along the flats westward and came out on the county road about two miles west of Bell Rock at the boundary between the two counties.

Mother says that Sarah Eliza Thompson Davy, child of aunt Rachel Sanders's first husband, told her that she was taught by her mother to call Lycurgus & Mary uncle & aunt and we wondered if you knew why.

Grace Clark says Frank told her that his mother said she had the fighting Johnston spirit in her veins. So she must be referring to Sgt Johnston. She says Jane & Mary both got money from Andrew Hardley's father's estate.

Ernest Grant and Lydia Anne Snyder had son Charles.

Abraham, father of Lydia Anne also had as a second family.

Emerson, Myles & Mrs. John Deane.
Averill Grant had son Honey Bell, who was father of Laura Grant Wernp.
Honey Bell's wife was Jennie Graham, daughter of Andrew Graham of Verona.

Nelson Grader's mother was Carolina
Snider, a sister of John B. Jacob Bete.
Martin Snider's wife was Julia Grader daughter of Carolina & ^{and} Grader

(Jacob B. ^{the cancer dealer} Snider's wife) was a ^{amanilla} ~~Hogboon~~

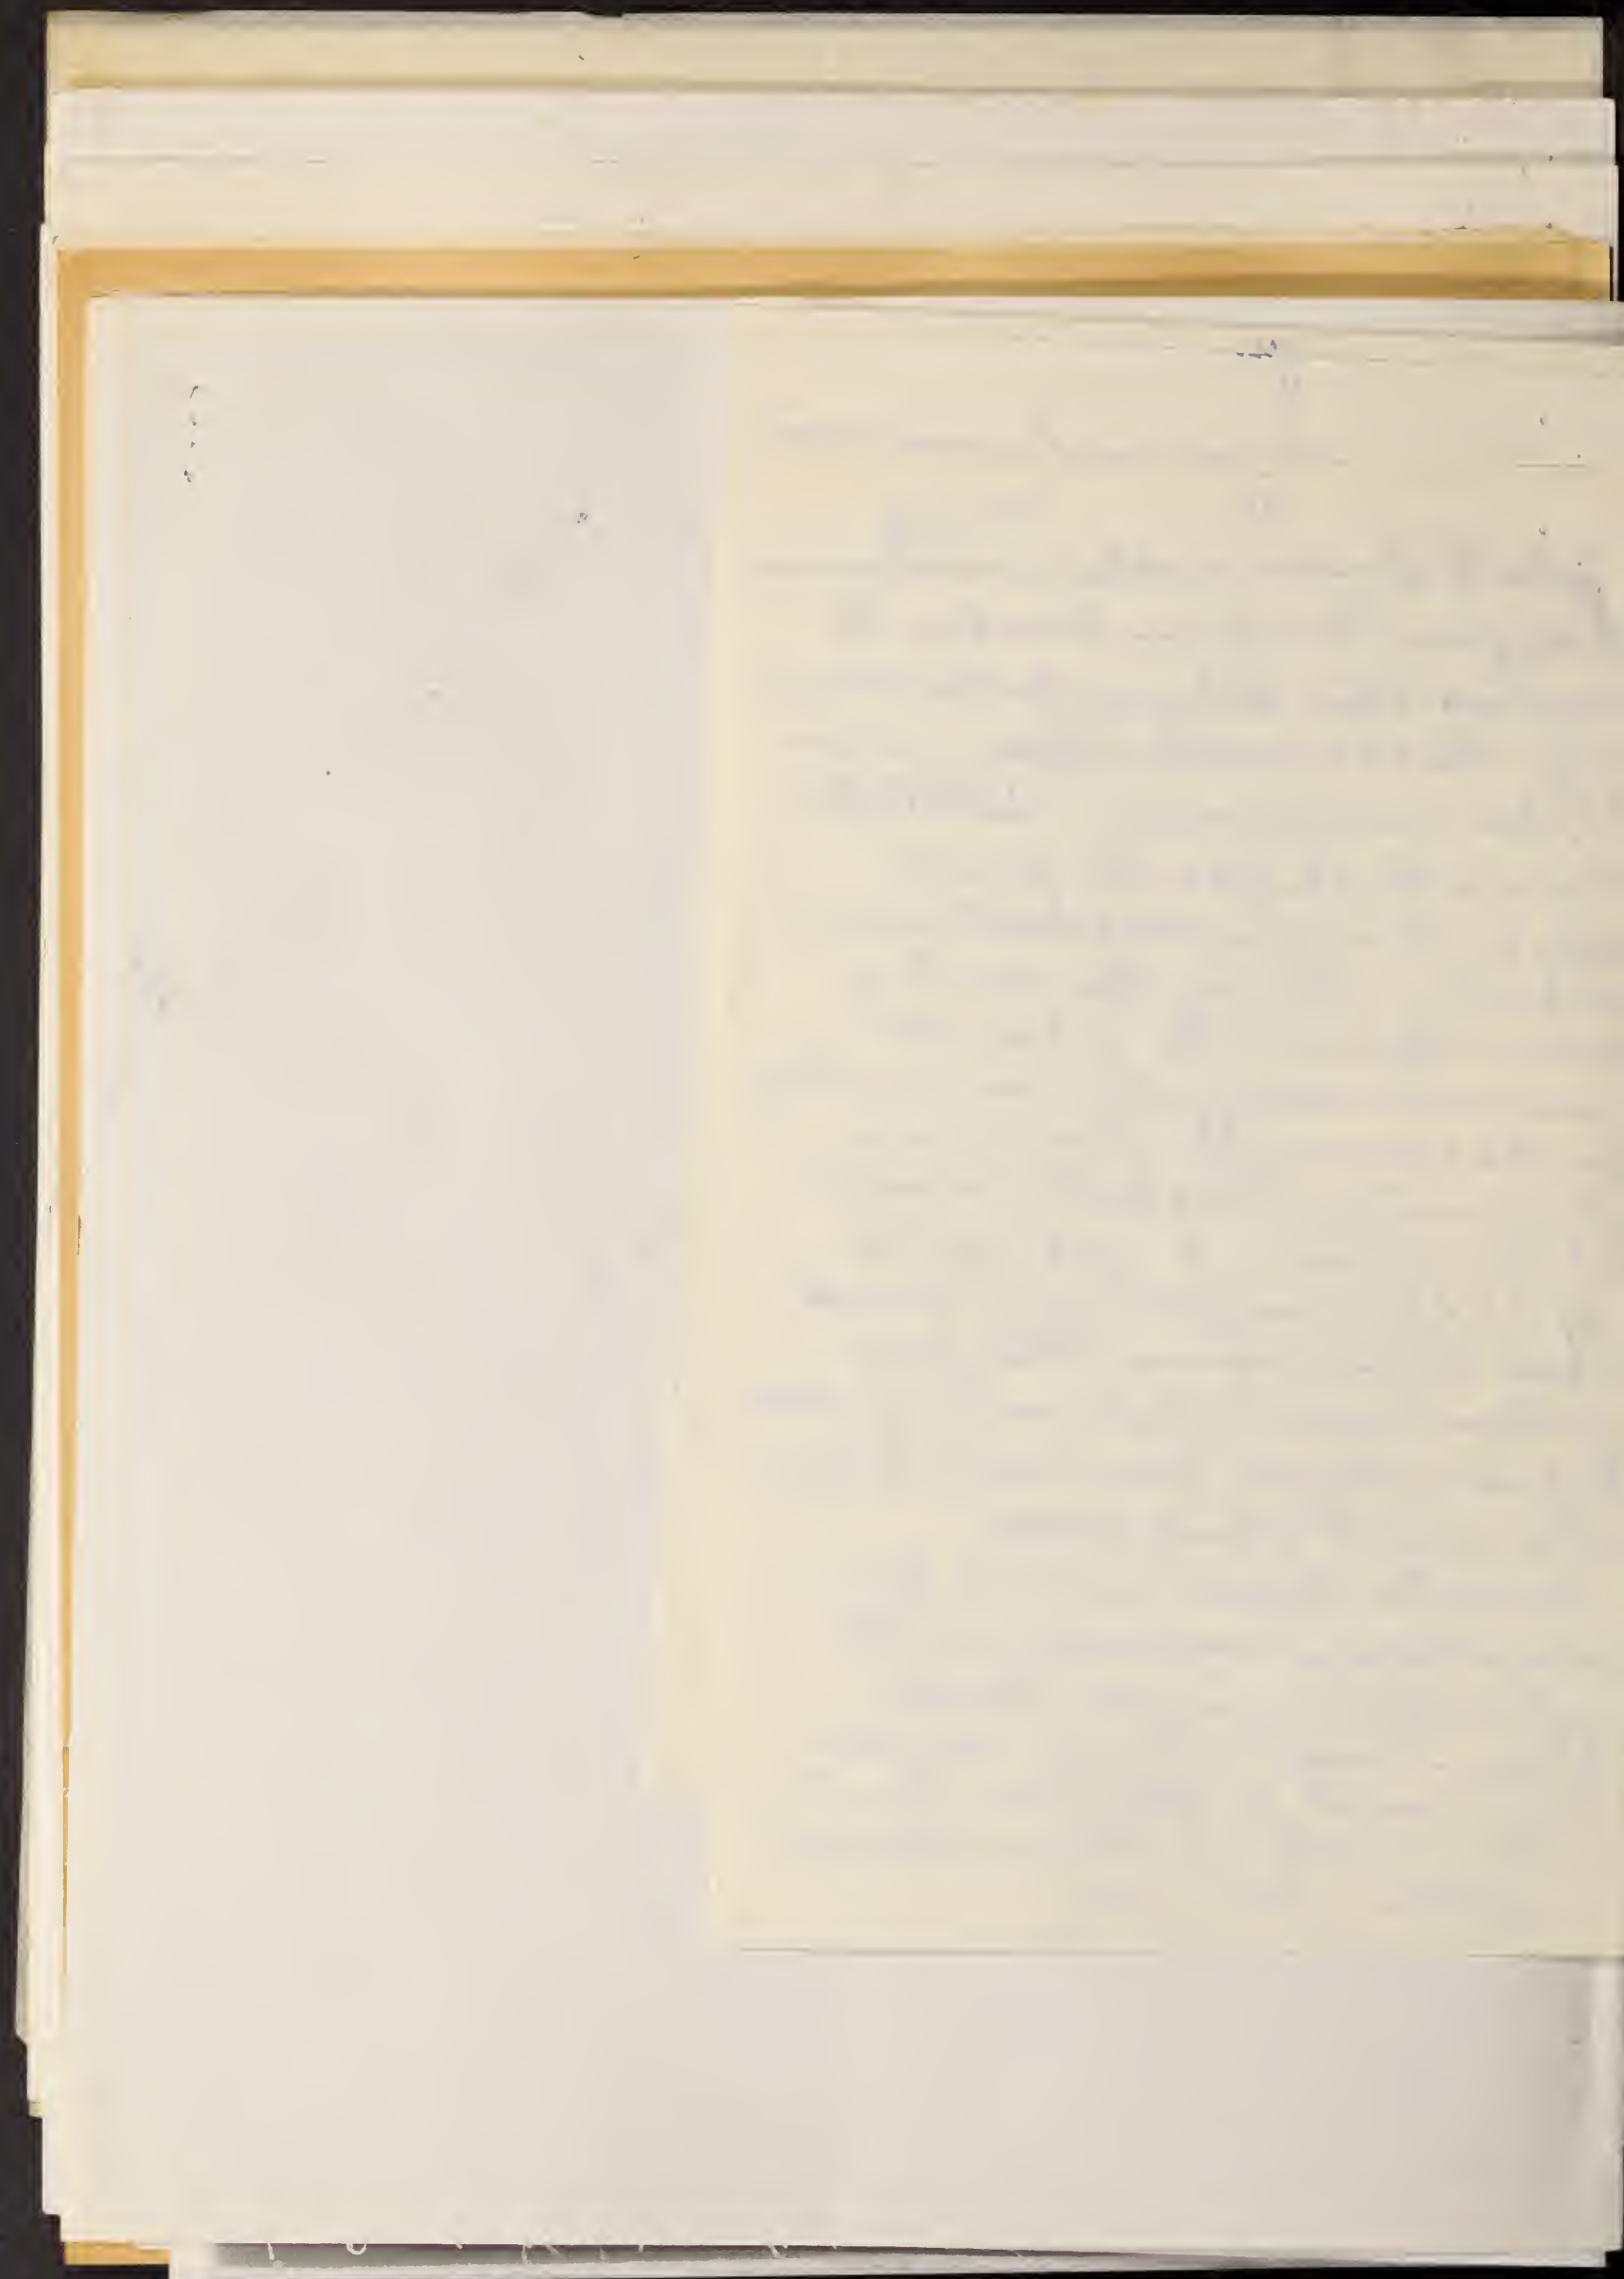

Midus Grant, Lydi's brother, married
Jane Abigail, daughter of Oran Schuitzer by his second wife Lathence Card.

Midus Grants had one son Everton or Edgerton who disappeared, presumably in U. S. A. Midus lived where Earl son of Leonard Meeks now lives.

John B. Snyder's mother was Lavina Schryver. Grandma's brother Ed. married Olive Schryver for his second wife. She & her sister Mattie (who is 97) live near Anderson. Aunt Mattie says she thinks John B's parents may be buried in that old Lutheran cemetery. She says the cemetery where Melior Files is buried was never designated as a cemetery so the owner of the farm owned the cemetery. This is the reason it has fallen into such a state. If I had thought today, I could have asked Lavina Schryver's father's name but I was so surprised to find a Snyder married a Schryver that I didn't think to ask.

Uncle Ed. Snyder married his second cousin according to the information given me. All the Snyders - George, Walter, Jacob & John were named for Schryvers. Aunt Mattie thinks the name should be spelled Schneider.

Andrew Meeks Family:

From a Census of Camden Township I learned that Andrew was born in 1829 and his wife in 1829. This Census was taken in 1861. At that time they had the following children: Solan, Bertrand, Angelina, Ann and Bella. I know that by his first marriage he also had a son Nathan. We think Andrew is buried at Evan's Mills, N. Y. I can find no record of the above-mentioned children except Nathan. We know that Andrew Meeks' first wife died and he married a Mrs. Storey who already had a family. One of her children was a Mrs. Lockwood, who, with my grandmother, Mrs. James Meeks used to visit the family at Evan's Mills.

Nathan Meeks married Permina Barclay and had four sons and four daughters:

William, Rose, Jessie and Susan are all deceased.

Margaret married Frank Jackson —no children.

Dexter married Sybil Zimmerman and had Mildred, who married Irving Russell; Marion, who married Earl Hall; Willard, who married Betty Sweeney; Robert, who married Helen Steele and Thelma, who married Clifford Stevens.

Harry married Burdettia Hill and had Glenn, who married Gladys Hamilton; Harry Jr., who married Willie Mae Byrd and June, who married Leo. E. West. June is at present in Germany where her husband is in the Army.

John married Anna Loveland and they have Donald, who married Bev. Calhoun; Sharon, who married Victor Capone and Adrian, not yet married.

Nathan Meeks was born Mar. 20th, 1861, so the Census must have been taken before he was born. By Mrs. Storey Andrew Meeks had one son Dexter who has already been mentioned in the family of Joel Meeks.

Rosannah Meeks Family:

Rosannah Meeks married John Asseltine of Roblin and from what I can learn there was only one child—a son. He had a sore on his back, thought to be caused by his suspenders. It turned to cancer and he died young.

Susannah Meeks Family:

Susannah Meeks, born 1821, married in 1838, George Schermerhorn of Roblin. She died Sept. 13th, 1898 at Roblin and is buried in Roblin Cemetery. I have seen her tombstone. She was described to me by one of her grandsons as a shiftless woman—content with one dress, her pipe and her Bible. She had thirteen children:

Joel, born May 7th, 1839, died Jan. 13th, 1916; married Sarah, daughter of Seth Wheeler.

Leonard, born May 11, 1840, died Oct. 16, 1921; married Dec. 25, 1864, Sarah Metcalfe.

Cyrus, born 1841, married first cousin, Mary Walsh. He died from typhoid fever on way West.

Amarilla, born 1843, died young.

Elizabeth, born Oct. 11, 1844, died Jan. 8, 1916; married Oct. 29, 1885, Alfred Hane.

Rosannah, born 1846, married Richard McGrath.

George, born Oct. 11, 1848, died Sept. 17, 1895; married Elizabeth Adair.

Laina, born 1850 was married but had no children.

Mary, born 1853, married Mathew Hart.

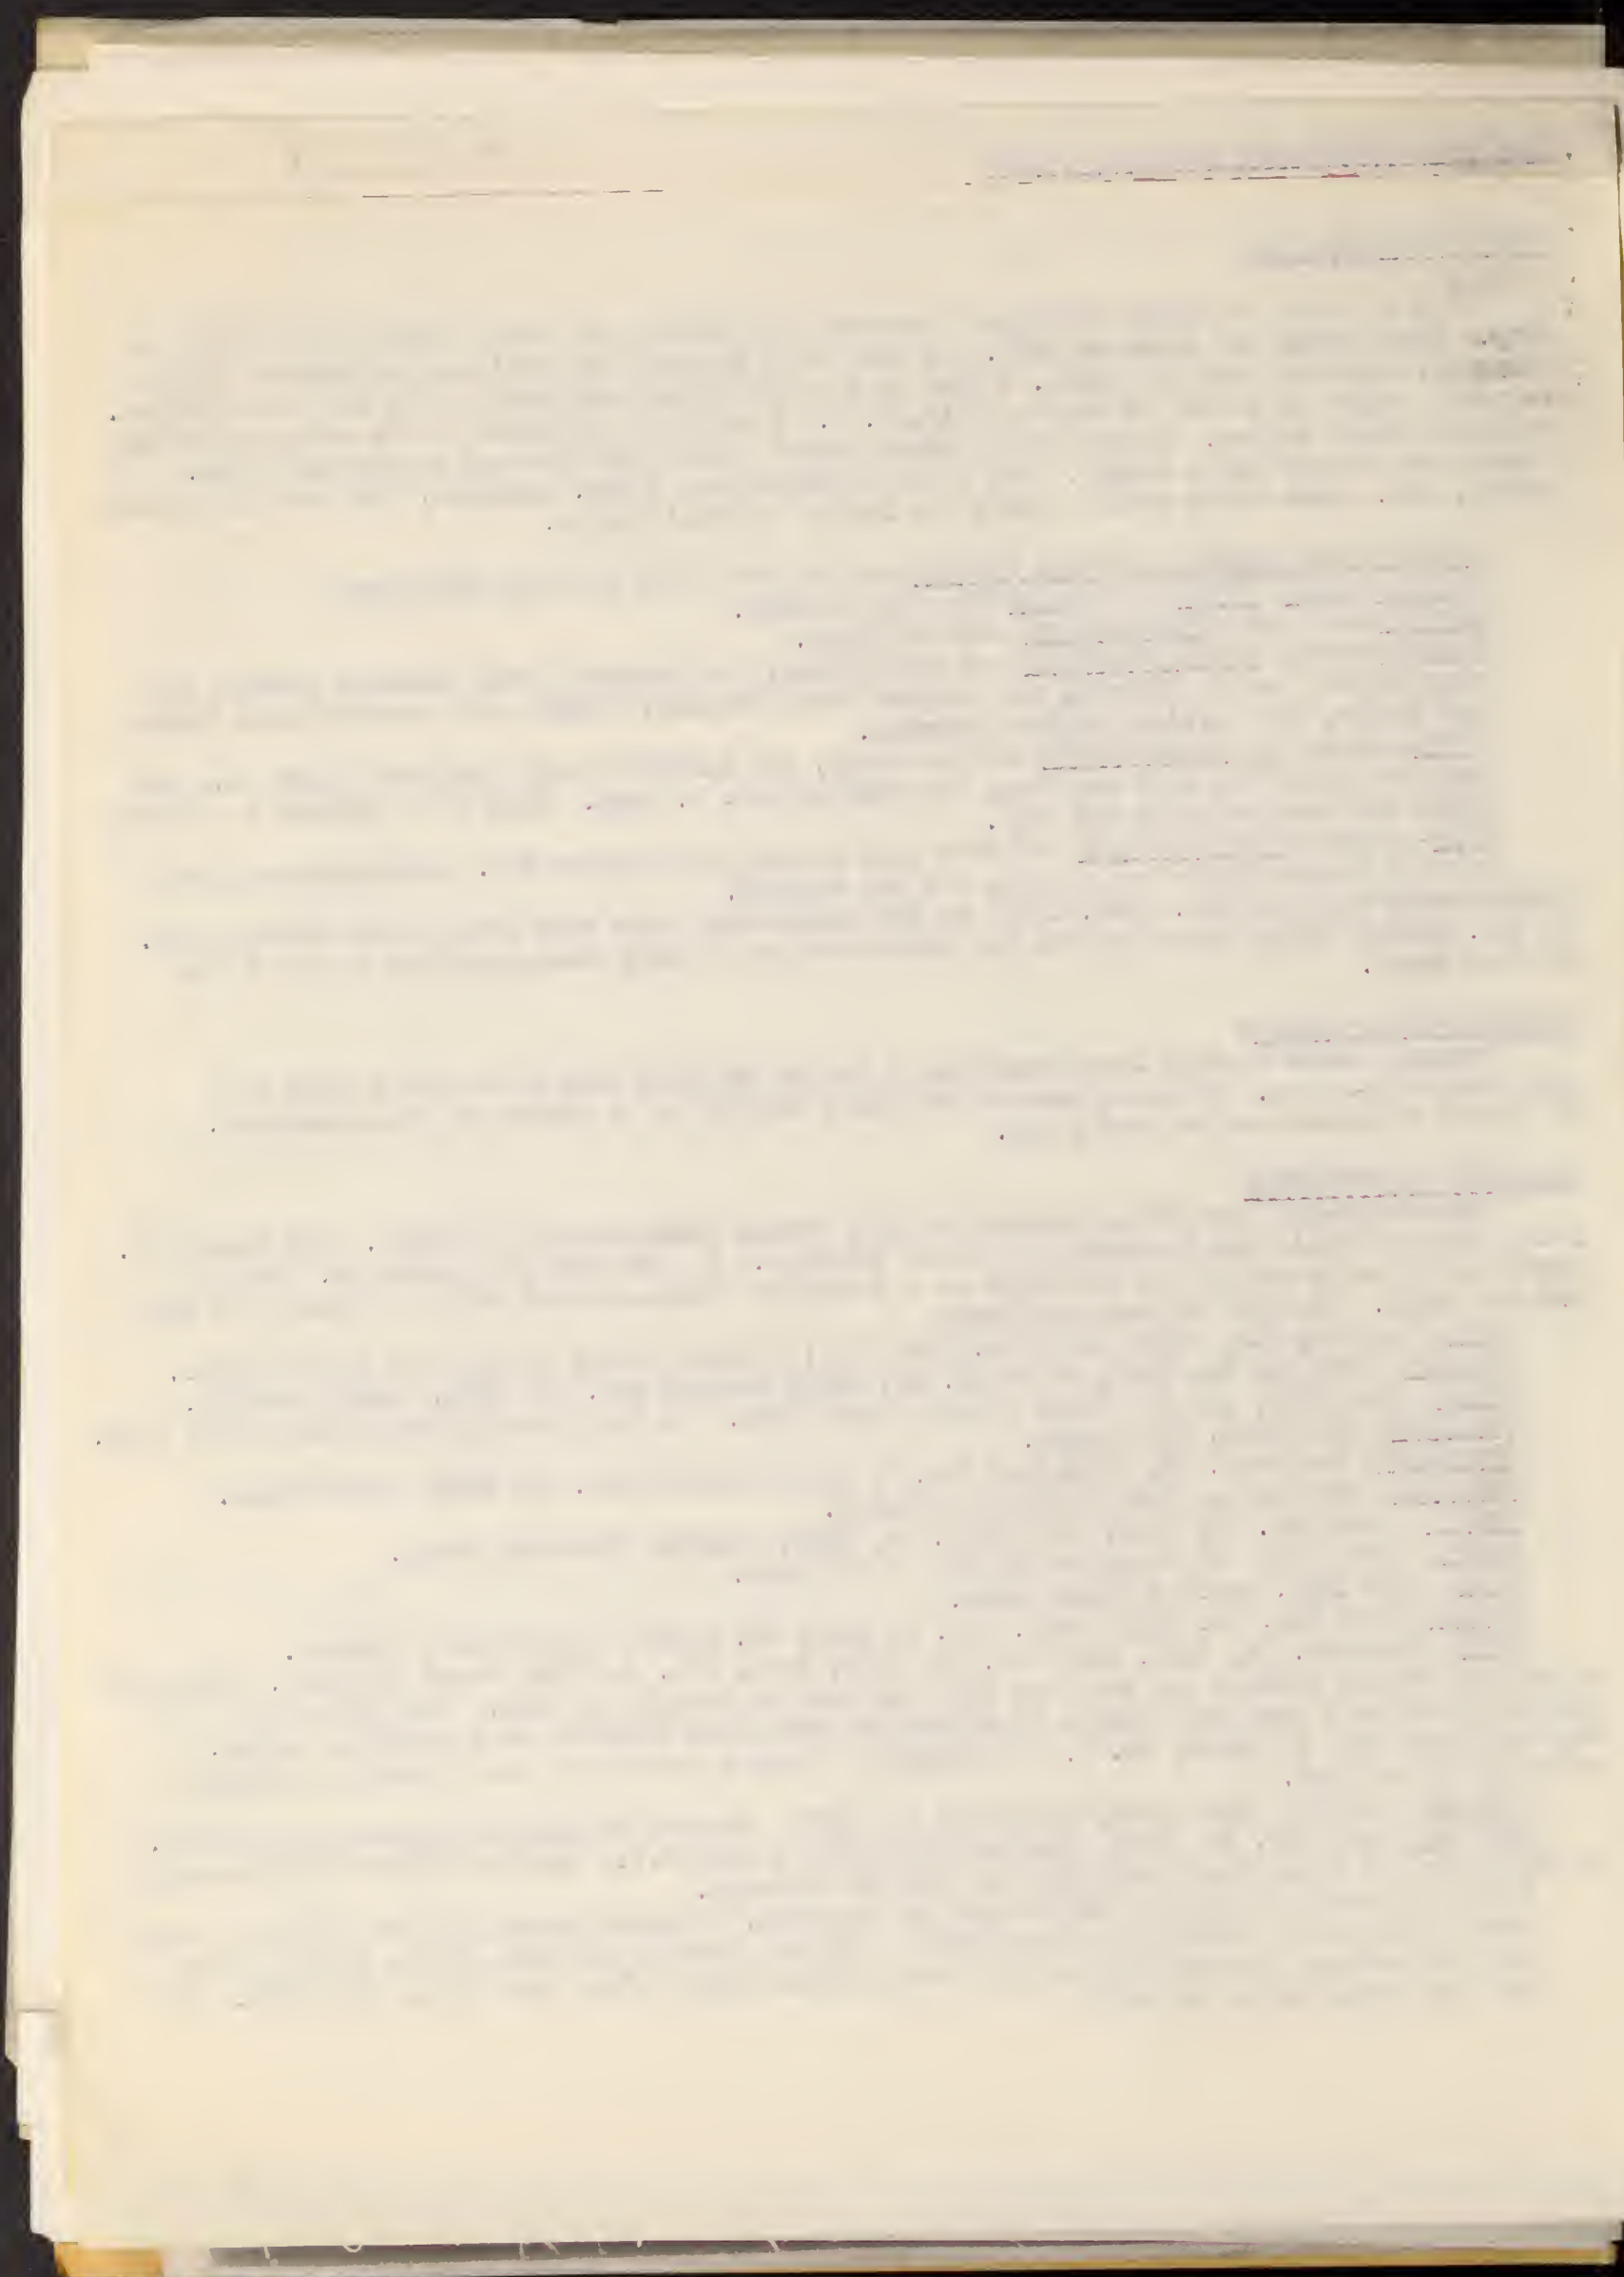

Almira, born May, 14, 1855, marr. Mar. 2, 1872, Wm. Winter of Listowel, Ontario.

John, born Dec. 31, 1858, died Oct. 29, 1893; marr. Jan. 2, 1894, Naomi Thompson. They had a daughter Violet Bernice who was born 1900 and died of the flu in 1918. They also had a son Roy, who married a Miss Bell and he is a Wesleyan Methodist minister at Shawville, Quebec. Roy had three sons: Harry, Dr. G., of Kingston, Ontario and one son was listed as missing overseas in the RCAF.

Miles, born May 19th, 1861, died June 11, 1937. Married Charlotte Hynders—no children.

Matilda, born Jan. 15, 1863, died May 19, 1929 at Lima N.Y., married Miles VanValkenburgh of Selby, son of Miles VanValkenburgh and Asenath Vosburgh.

I have no complete list of descendants of Susannah. Leonard Schermerhorn's children were: Mary, Joel, Jane, Elizabeth, James Nettie, William Rachel, Leonard, Sarah, Nellie, John, Ada and Gordon. Gordon was born 1887 and married Greta Velej, born 1891, died 1950. He had two sons—Morley and Milo.

Lycurgus Meeks Family:

Lycurgus Meeks was my great-grandfather. He was born in 1825. His wife, Mary Hawley, was the daughter of Andrew Hawley and Rachel Grant who were of U.E.L. Stock. I have in my possession a copy of Andrew Hawley's Marriage Certificate and a copy of the Baptismal Certificate of Mary. Mary, in later years was called "old mum" by all who knew her. She acquired this name when she would not allow her grandchildren to call her grandmother. They lived on a fifty-acre farm at Bell Rock and are buried in the little cemetery there. Their children were: Mortimer, born in 1855; Leonard, born in 1857, and died young; James Hawley (Tedge), born 1860, Edith and Martha.

(1) Mortimer married Ursulla Walroth and had the following children:

Frank, whom I believe never married; Forest, who married and lived at Nobel, Ontario; Hilton, who married and had a family; Lynne, who married Thos. Grant and died when her son Hawley was born or when he was tiny. She is buried in the Meeks plot at Bell Rock. Hawley married—Clara—and had Evelyn, who married Ted Graham and have children, Lois married Leland Amey and they have children and Robert. May, married Benjamin Revelle and had Stanley Earl, Russell and Capt. Clarence. Stanley, Earl and Russell married and have families. Florence, who married a Thompson and had Manley, Dorald, Rachel and others I believe.

(2) James Meeks married Emma Snider and they resided at Bell Rock. They had three sons:

Arthur, who died in infancy.
Clair who married Rosetta Reppard on Jan. 1st 1907, and they have three sons and two daughters.
Delesslyn married Freeman White and they have George, Gwen and Glenda.
Oakland married May Ball and they have Flora, JoAnne, Lucille, Jeanette and Beth.
Maitland married Bessie Card and they have Judith and Elaine.
Gwendolyn married Crawford Smith and they have Susan, Jennifer and Malcolm.
Leland married Kathleen Haggart of South River, Ontario and they have no children.

Leonard Meeks married Stella VanValkenburgh and they have:

Ruth married Ed. Loucks and they have Doris, Anne, Billie and Ted, who married Melba Aylsworth.
Eva married Lloyd Gomu and they have Paul and Pamela.
Florence married Garnet Collins and they have Valarie, at home, Kay, who married Margaret Silver and has two sons—Kevin and Curtis and Dr. Dudley (veterinarian) who is also married.
Earl married Louise Reynolds and they have Philip and Lynne.
Leonard and Stella Meeks reside at Bell Rock as do Clair and Etta Meeks.

(3) Martha Meeks married Michael York but died a few months later. She is buried in Meeks Plot

(4) Edith Meeks married Alex Parker and had three sons and one daughter:

Jewel married Wm. Bell and they have one daughter Buelah. Buelah married Bun Booth and they have three children.
Noel married Margaret Kellar and had one son, Russell. Noel is deceased.
Ray married Gladys Ellis and Ray, Violet, Rosemary, who married ——— Jutras, Clair, who married Dolly Steinberg and Mabel who married John Blake. John Blake is deceased. John and Mabel have a little daughter, Susan.
James married Ruth Fleming and had Dorcas, Eleanor and Jean. Two of the girls are married.

Elizabeth Meeks Family:

As stated earlier, I did not know until a week ago that Elizabeth married Dennison Meeks. I shall have to refer again to a Census I have and a newspaper clipping. Dennison Meeks was born in 1825, Elizabeth in 1831. Her eldest child was born in 1847. She had twelve children--eight were born in Camden and four were born after they moved to Cloyne in 1858. According to the Census she had the following children by 1861: Beniah, Rosannah, Ann, Rilla, Amelia, Fatima and Davis. She also had a son Allen who was nicknamed "Tan."

Tan married Annie Posenplot and had several children and these are the names of some of them: James, Archie, John, Andrew, Tanhill, Mrs. Charles Spencer, Mrs. Sheldon Hawley, Efrone and Stuart.

One can see by the above list that the descendents of Elizabeth and Dennison are numerous and I should be very happy to obtain any additional information anyone would care to give me.

Happy Family ReUnion Everyone !

FAMILY TREE OF JOEL MECKS

Dr. R. L. Lough

This is the story of my great-great-grandparents, Joel and Elizabeth Meeks, as I know it. In our family, Joel Meeks was known to be a very staunch Quaker, who never wasted words. We never knew his wife's given or maiden name. We knew that she was supposed to be the first white woman north of the drowned lands at Bell Rock and Joel Meeks drew her across the ice on a sleigh to her new home. The story as I know it was that he came to Canada and worked on the survey party when the Townships were being settled. He was supposed to have wanted a certain piece of land but was disappointed and was given a parcel of much less value. I have found most of this to be erroneous, although he did live at Bell Rock at one time.

I wrote to Ottawa for a copy of his application for land and I learned that neither Joel Meeks, nor any other Meeks had ever made application for land or had been given a grant of land. I then went to the Registry Office in Kingston and was told that he had never owned land at Bell Rock. Bell Rock is in Portland Township, about thirty miles north of Kingston.

Now I should like to tell you a little of what I have learned. To all who have assisted in any way, may I say a very hearty "thank you."

Joel Meeks and his wife Elizabeth Thompson were both born in U.S. All of their seven children were born in Canada. Joel Meeks had a brother Edward and these two young men lived for a time near Albany N.Y. I have yet to discover why Joel Meeks and his wife came to Canada. I do know that at one time they lived in Camden Township, near Napanee, Ontario, and finally settled in Richmond Township, near Roblin, Ontario. They are buried on the farm where they resided. I have visited this farm and would be happy to direct anyone to it.

Elizabeth had a brother Levi, who lived on the adjoining farm at Roblin. He was supposed to have enjoyed the odd drink, and one day he and his sister were driving back to Roblin by way of a very rough road which led down a very steep hill. Elizabeth asked Levi to slow down a bit as she didn't feel he was in a capable condition to manage the horses. He replied "Betsy, if you are going to die, you may as well die with your brother beside you." So we know that she was nicknamed Betsy.

Joel and Elizabeth had a family of three sons and four daughters: Joel, who married Almira Acherman; Andrew, who married (1) Sabrina Thompson and (2) a Mrs. Storey; Lycurgus, who married Mary Hannah Hawley; Susannah, who married George Schermerhorn; Rosannah, who married John Asseltine; Elizabeth (Bept), who married her cousin, Dennison Meeks, and Jemima Anne who married Oran DeShane.

On the tombstones on the farm near Roblin are these words:

FATHER'S GRAVE

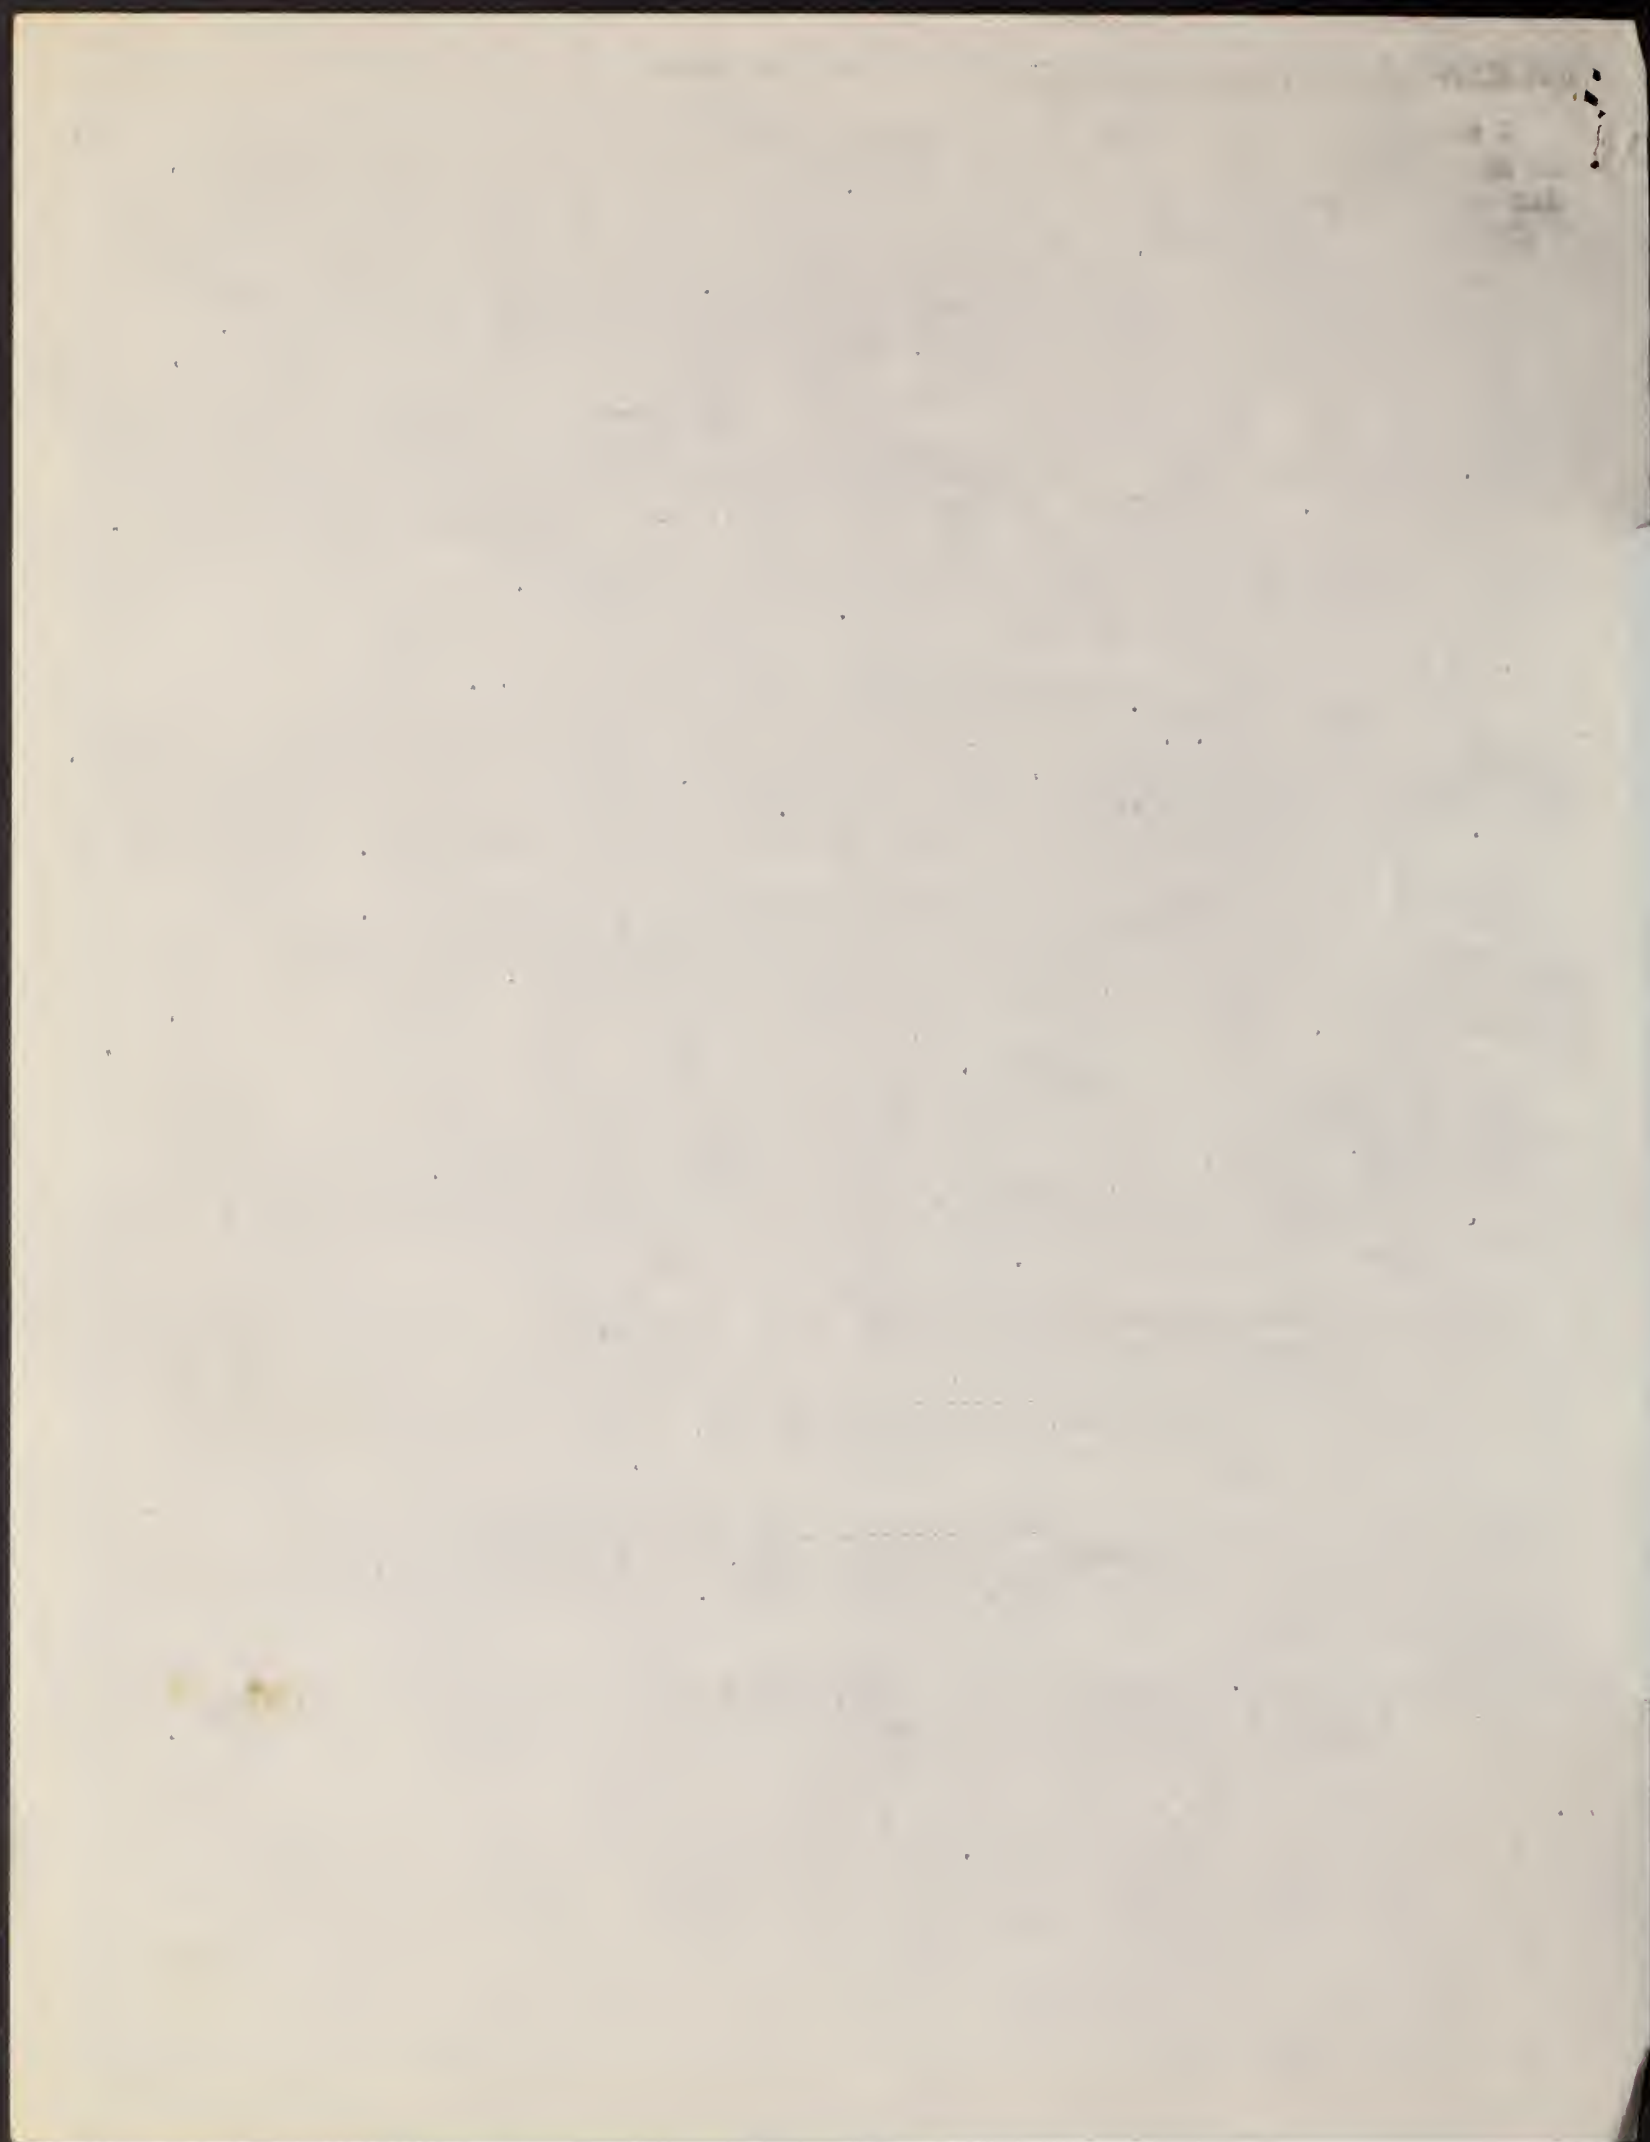

Joel Meeks, died July 12th, 1878,
Aged 82 years, 7 months, and 13 days.

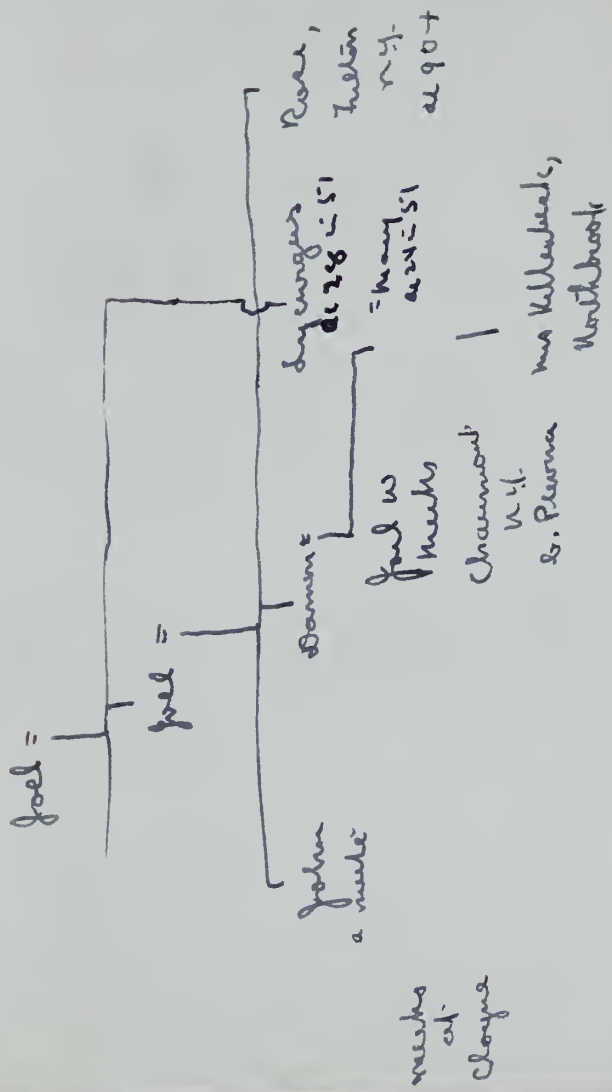

MOTHER'S GRAVE

Elizabeth, wife of Joel Meeks, died June 19th, 1862,
Aged 62 years, 3 months, 7 days.

On the following pages I have tried to give a list of the descendents of the sons and daughters of Joel Meeks. I learned only a week ago that Bept Meeks was Elizabeth, the wife of Dennison Meeks and I have not had the time to get a complete list of their descendents.

I.B. If there are any errors in this Tree, I should be very happy if they are brought to my attention so they may be corrected.

Copy of letter received from James Albert Snider, Harvey's son.
Hydenham, Mar 26/57.

Dear cousin Emen:

I received your welcome letter yesterday and will try to tell you all I can at present. I will continue to get all this relationship figured out if possible, which is very interesting at present I cannot give much information.

Cecilia is still living and real smart. I just arrived home Mar 18th from a visit to California. I left here Jan 4th. They are all well there. I will send your letter to Cecilia. Perhaps she can tell us something. I will ask her to return the letter so I can continue to work on it. I don't know my grandmother Switzer's first name or where they were buried. Her husband's name was Christopher. My mother had 5 sisters and 1 brother. Sisters were Ella Snider, Cecilia Touré, Agnes, and Lila. I don't know if this is the right name... always called her Aunt Lila. Her brother was Warner.

Well Emen, I guess I have told you all I can for now. I will do my best to get all this figured out as soon as I can.

I had a wonderful trip to Los Angeles, Calif.

Come and make us a visit some time.

We are all well and hope you are the same.

N.B. Cecilia is Cecilia Darry, sister of James Albert bye bye.

N.B. James Albert's son
Mason owns Snider's
James Robert, Clearmont, Princeps St.

(OVER)

Could this Christopher be the William C. you had listed in your atlas near Godfrey? Probably.

I think this Christopher must be a first cousin to Dr. Dray, Rephas, etc. because grandma Pephard got Ellen Smith's wife to take aunt
Jennie because aunt Ella was her cousin.
That's how mother came to live with uncle
Allen's mother.

Copy of letter received from Mrs. Clair Meeks.

Mar. 25, 1957.

Dear Given Hall:

Your parcel came. Thanks a lot. Stockings are very nice to get.

I will set about to answer some questions:

Ia had a quilting last week. Grace was there and she said she had answered your letter.

Grace said Rachel Grant married Cornwall when she was 14 years old. They lived in a very lonely place. One night someone knocked on the door. He went out to talk and was never seen nor heard of again. She called but no one answered so she put in the night alone, as she was afraid to go anywhere.

She married Hawley next. ~~He~~ When she married Wheeler, he had been married before and had Joe Wheeler. Blanche Ruttan is not related to us, but is to the Wheelers.

This Mrs. Hawley Wheeler had: Hannah Delaney I think Dr. Burleigh that this is the grandmother of Bruce Snider the auctioneer, I'll find out for sure^{3,4}); Nancy Orader; Harriet Brooks, Martin; Isaac and George Wheeler.

My mother's people lived around Parham. Grandpa had a farm but when he married the second time she wasn't much of a worker so they lost it. He worked at carpenter work. Ma Keppard is buried in Parham cemetery.

John B. and Rebecca Snider are buried in Cato's plot in Napanee. (Northern cemetery⁵)

We don't know Joel's Meko wife's name nor where they lived. He was a Quaker. Lycurgus and Mary Meko are buried in the little plot up here on the 50 acres.

John B. Snider lived on Cass Griffith's place when the family was young. Baker Lake, in older days lived near Napanee. He had a son Jessie.

Emma Meko people lived near Hartington at one time. I remember her saying she was going to Bernie Campsalls one time and someone's dog nearly took the calf off her leg.

Mike York was Jim York's brother. Tommy Grant married Lix Meko, Mort Meko's daughter. That is why Hawley Grant is named Hawley - after Mary Hawley Meko.

Ella & Maribeth Snider were sisters. There was a large family. Their father was Christopher Switzer and when they were young, they lived not too far from Godfrey.

Philips Robert Switzer was my ~~late~~ mother's brother's name so I think he was named for a Philips Robert of an older generation.

I think if Ma Snider had an old bible, it likely burned up when her house burned.

Mait lives on Ira Bauder's farm. Herman Wiley has most of the land.

Grandpa Switzer had a brother Ophar.

I don't know who his first wife was but his daughter was Byron Rutland's mother so Byron's mother and my mother were first cousins. For a second wife, he married a Mrs. Robinson and I believe he could have died around Camden East.

John Switzer (Napawee, married to Martha Vele^{B.S.}) might be related to us away back. I don't know Oren Switzer's father's name nor do I know why there was a Wilbert in my family and Ida's too.

Too bad about Mrs. Meredith Wilson. Meredith Reynolds is going in for a heavy operation as soon as Dr. Mylke gets a bed for her.

At one time Cephas Switzer lived on Roy Moir's farm. Pearl Walker is very poorly. Willie had to help her down the stairs this a.m. Her mind is not good part time and she weighs about 80 lbs. The Dr. told them last week that there was no improvement.

Malcolm will soon have his first Birthday. We have our wood sawed. Clair splits odd times. He gets home quite early at night. He thinks he has enough wood for two years.

Hope you are well. I think I have answered any questions we know. Write and come.

Neil Reynolds (Garnet's^{4.4} boy) is to be usher at Teddy's wedding. Neil works at Mechanic.

Mother.

N.B. Teddy is uncle Leonard's Ruth's son. He is marrying Mrs. D. F. Tylsworth's Melba in Bath on April 19.
over,

Mr. York is dead. He married three times.
No family the first (Martha Meeks) Quite a large family the second time. Mrs. Jan York's sister was his second wife.

Mrs Crawford Smith

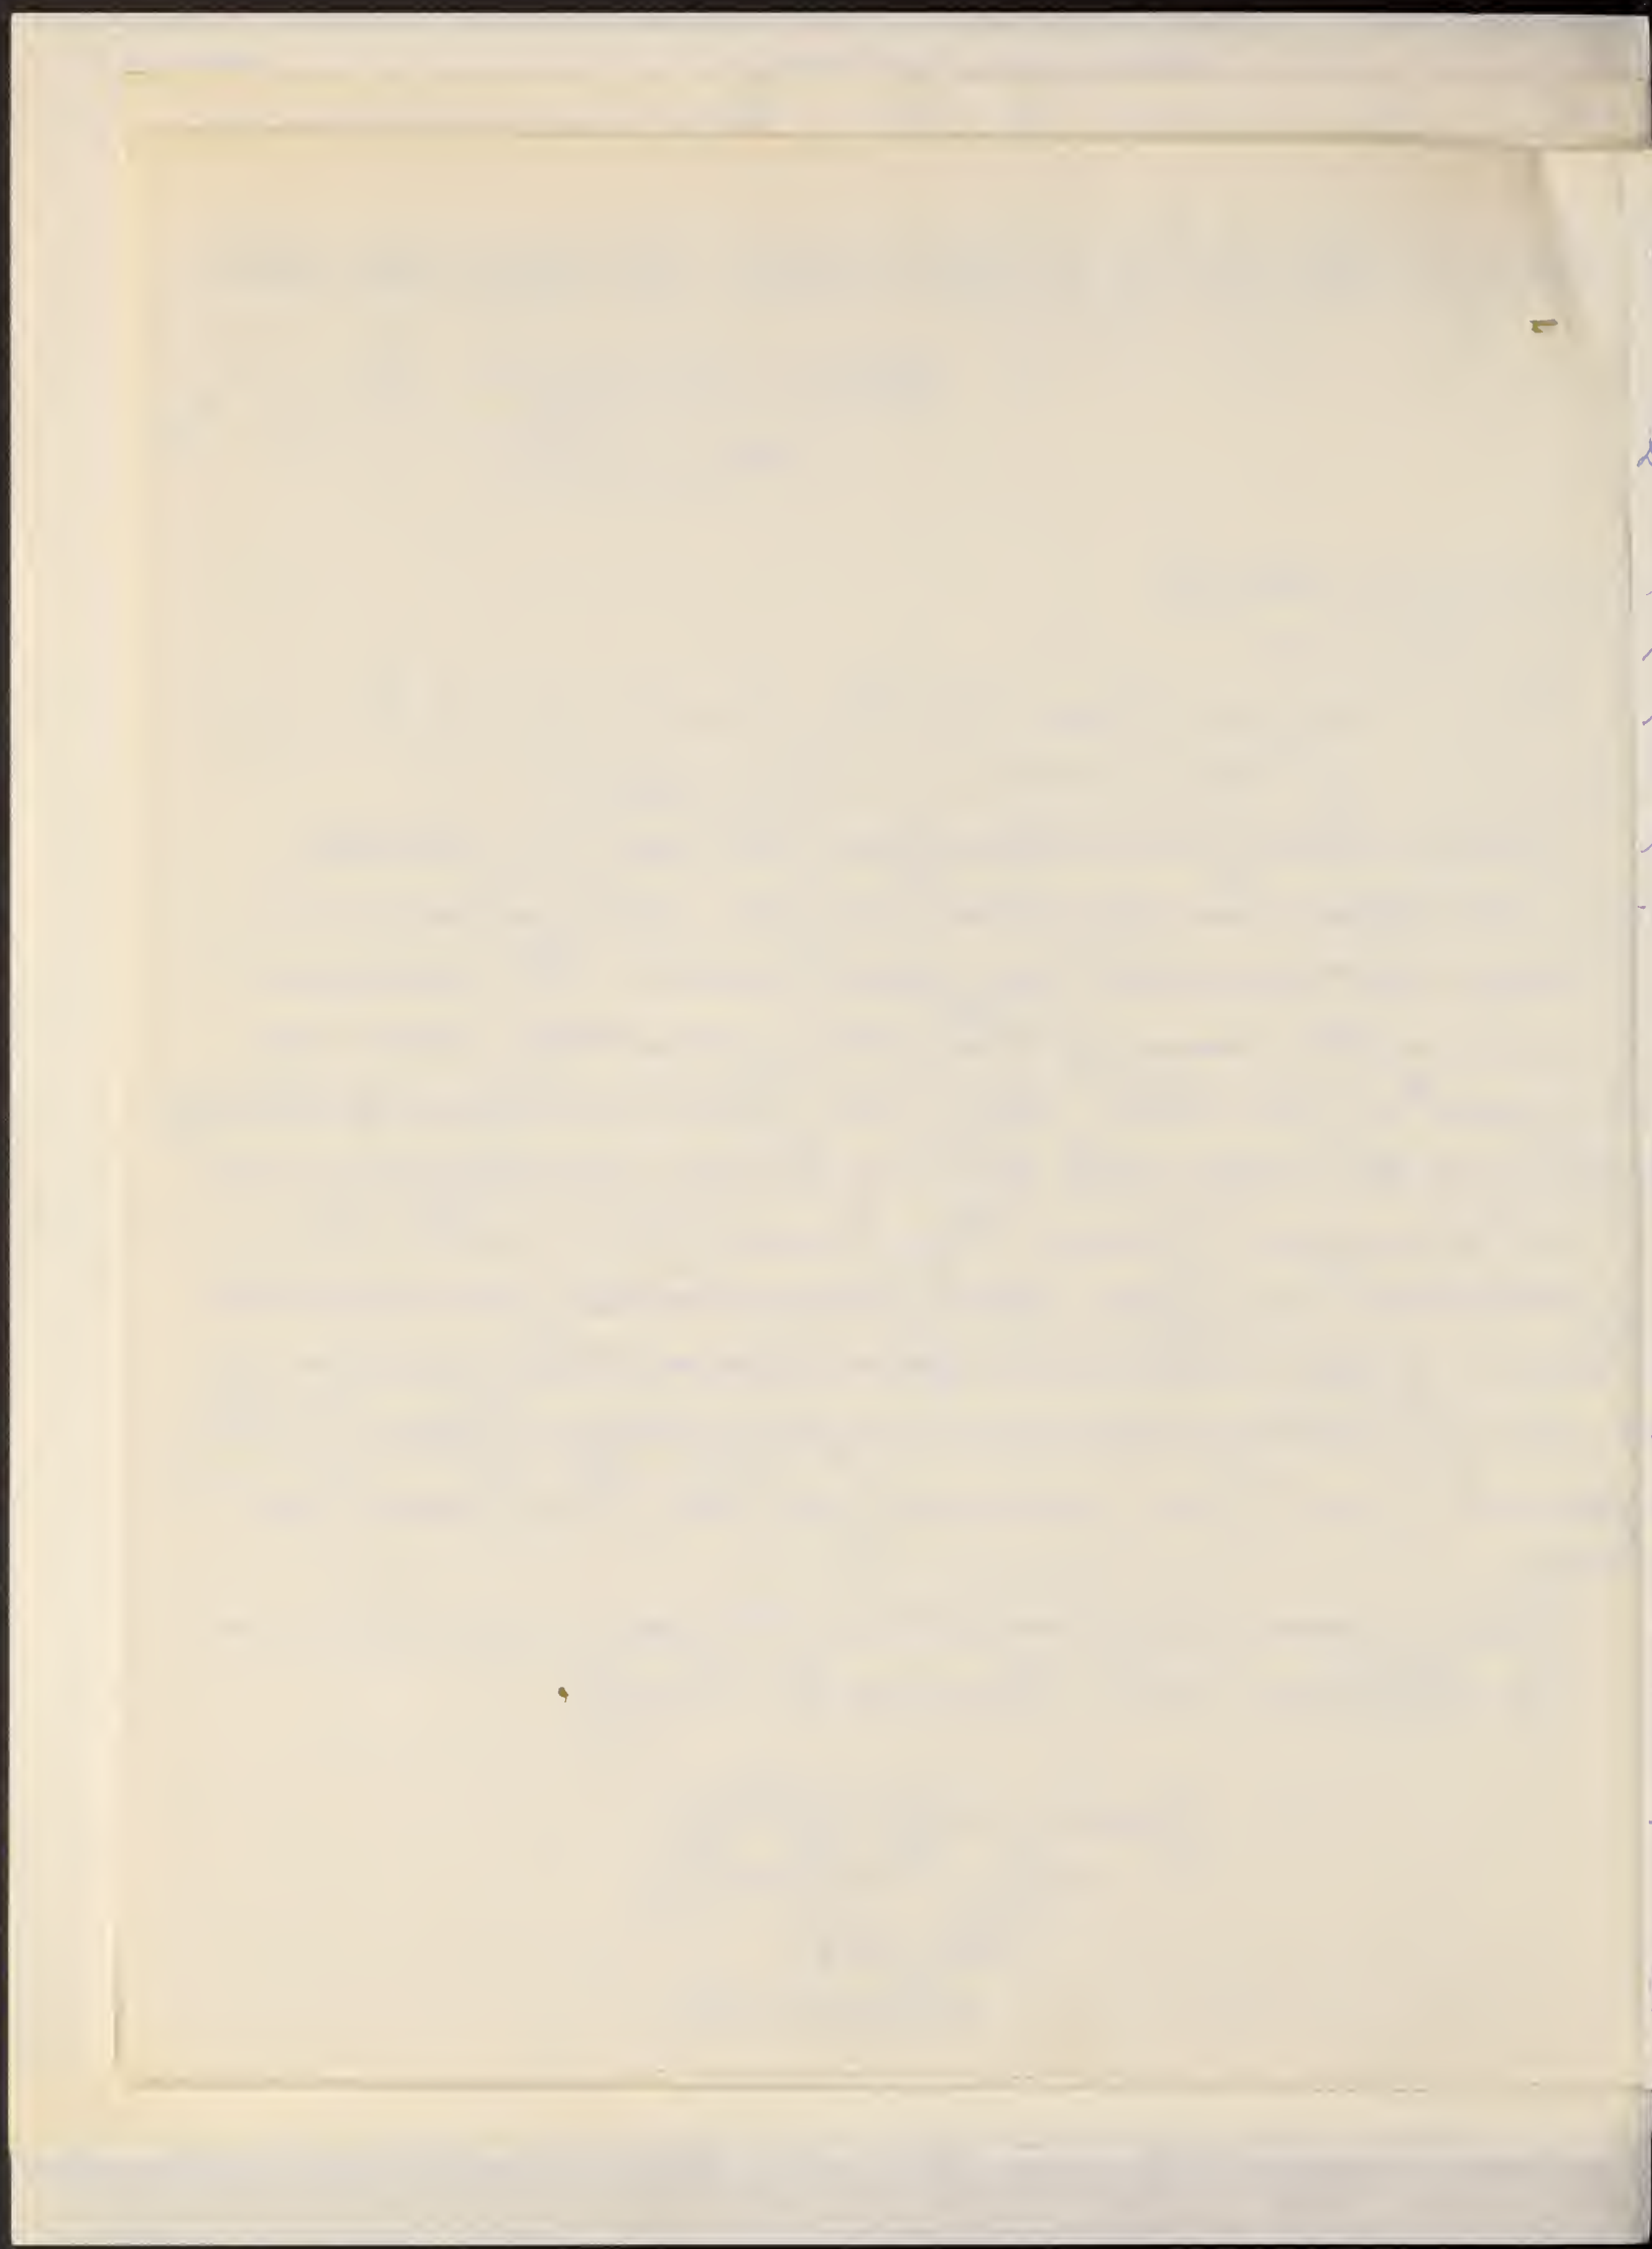

Dear madam:

I received your letter but there don't seem to be much that I can do. I do not know these people.

I knew two James Hawleys. One was my brother and the other was my first cousin. I knew a Jane Hawley that was also my first cousin. She married a man by the name of Sweetman and they lived in Kingston at one time. There is a book in Deseronto Library that gives the history of the U.E.L. in Canada but they don't let it out to anyone, unless they know them well. I can get the book so if you don't find out what you want to know, if you will come up to Deseronto some evening and will let me know a couple of days before, I will plan to be at home and will get the book and keep it here.

I think you will find out what you want to know
My telephone no is Deseronto 2239.

3/23/57

Dear Cousin:

Rec. your letter very glad to hear from you. I am wondering what relation you are to me. My grandfather's name was Joel, and his father's name was Joel. I think he is the one you speak of. I don't know where Hyungus Meeks comes in. I had an uncle Hyungus Meeks, a brother to my father. His name was Damon. His brother John was deaf.

You did not say who your father's name is. I have an aunt Rose Meeks lives to 515 Rochester Street, Guilton, N.Y. I don't know if she could tell you anything now or not. She is past 70 years old.

There are Meeks living around Clayne, Ont. I did not know them. I would like to know your father's name and where he makes his home. I am so sorry I can't give you more information on the Meeks family. Hope I may see you some day.

I am returning your stamped envelope as we cannot use Canadian postage. Am very glad to hear from you and if I get over to Canada this summer I will try to look you up and perhaps we can find out more about the Meeks family. I am very proud of the name as they are very nice people. We are fine for old people. Hope you people are also. I was born at Plouffe not too many miles from you. With best wishes, remain sincerely,

Joel W. Meeks. Chaumont. N.Y.

COPY OF LETTER RECEIVED FROM MRS. LEONARD MEEKS, (Stella Vanvolkenburgh)

March 30th, 1957.

Dear Gwen:

Lycurgus Meeks died in his sleep on the little farm we now own just outside BellRock. I was around 7 then and remember it quite well. His wife Mary lived there several years alone--the biggest share of her widowhood. I think she died at her daughter's place (Edith Parker). Martha Meeks lived for six months after she married Mike York and was buried in the little graveyard. Her headstone is still there on the little farm. The first Leonard (Tedge's brother who died in youth) was named for Leonard Clark and my Leonard was named for the Leonard Meeks that died.

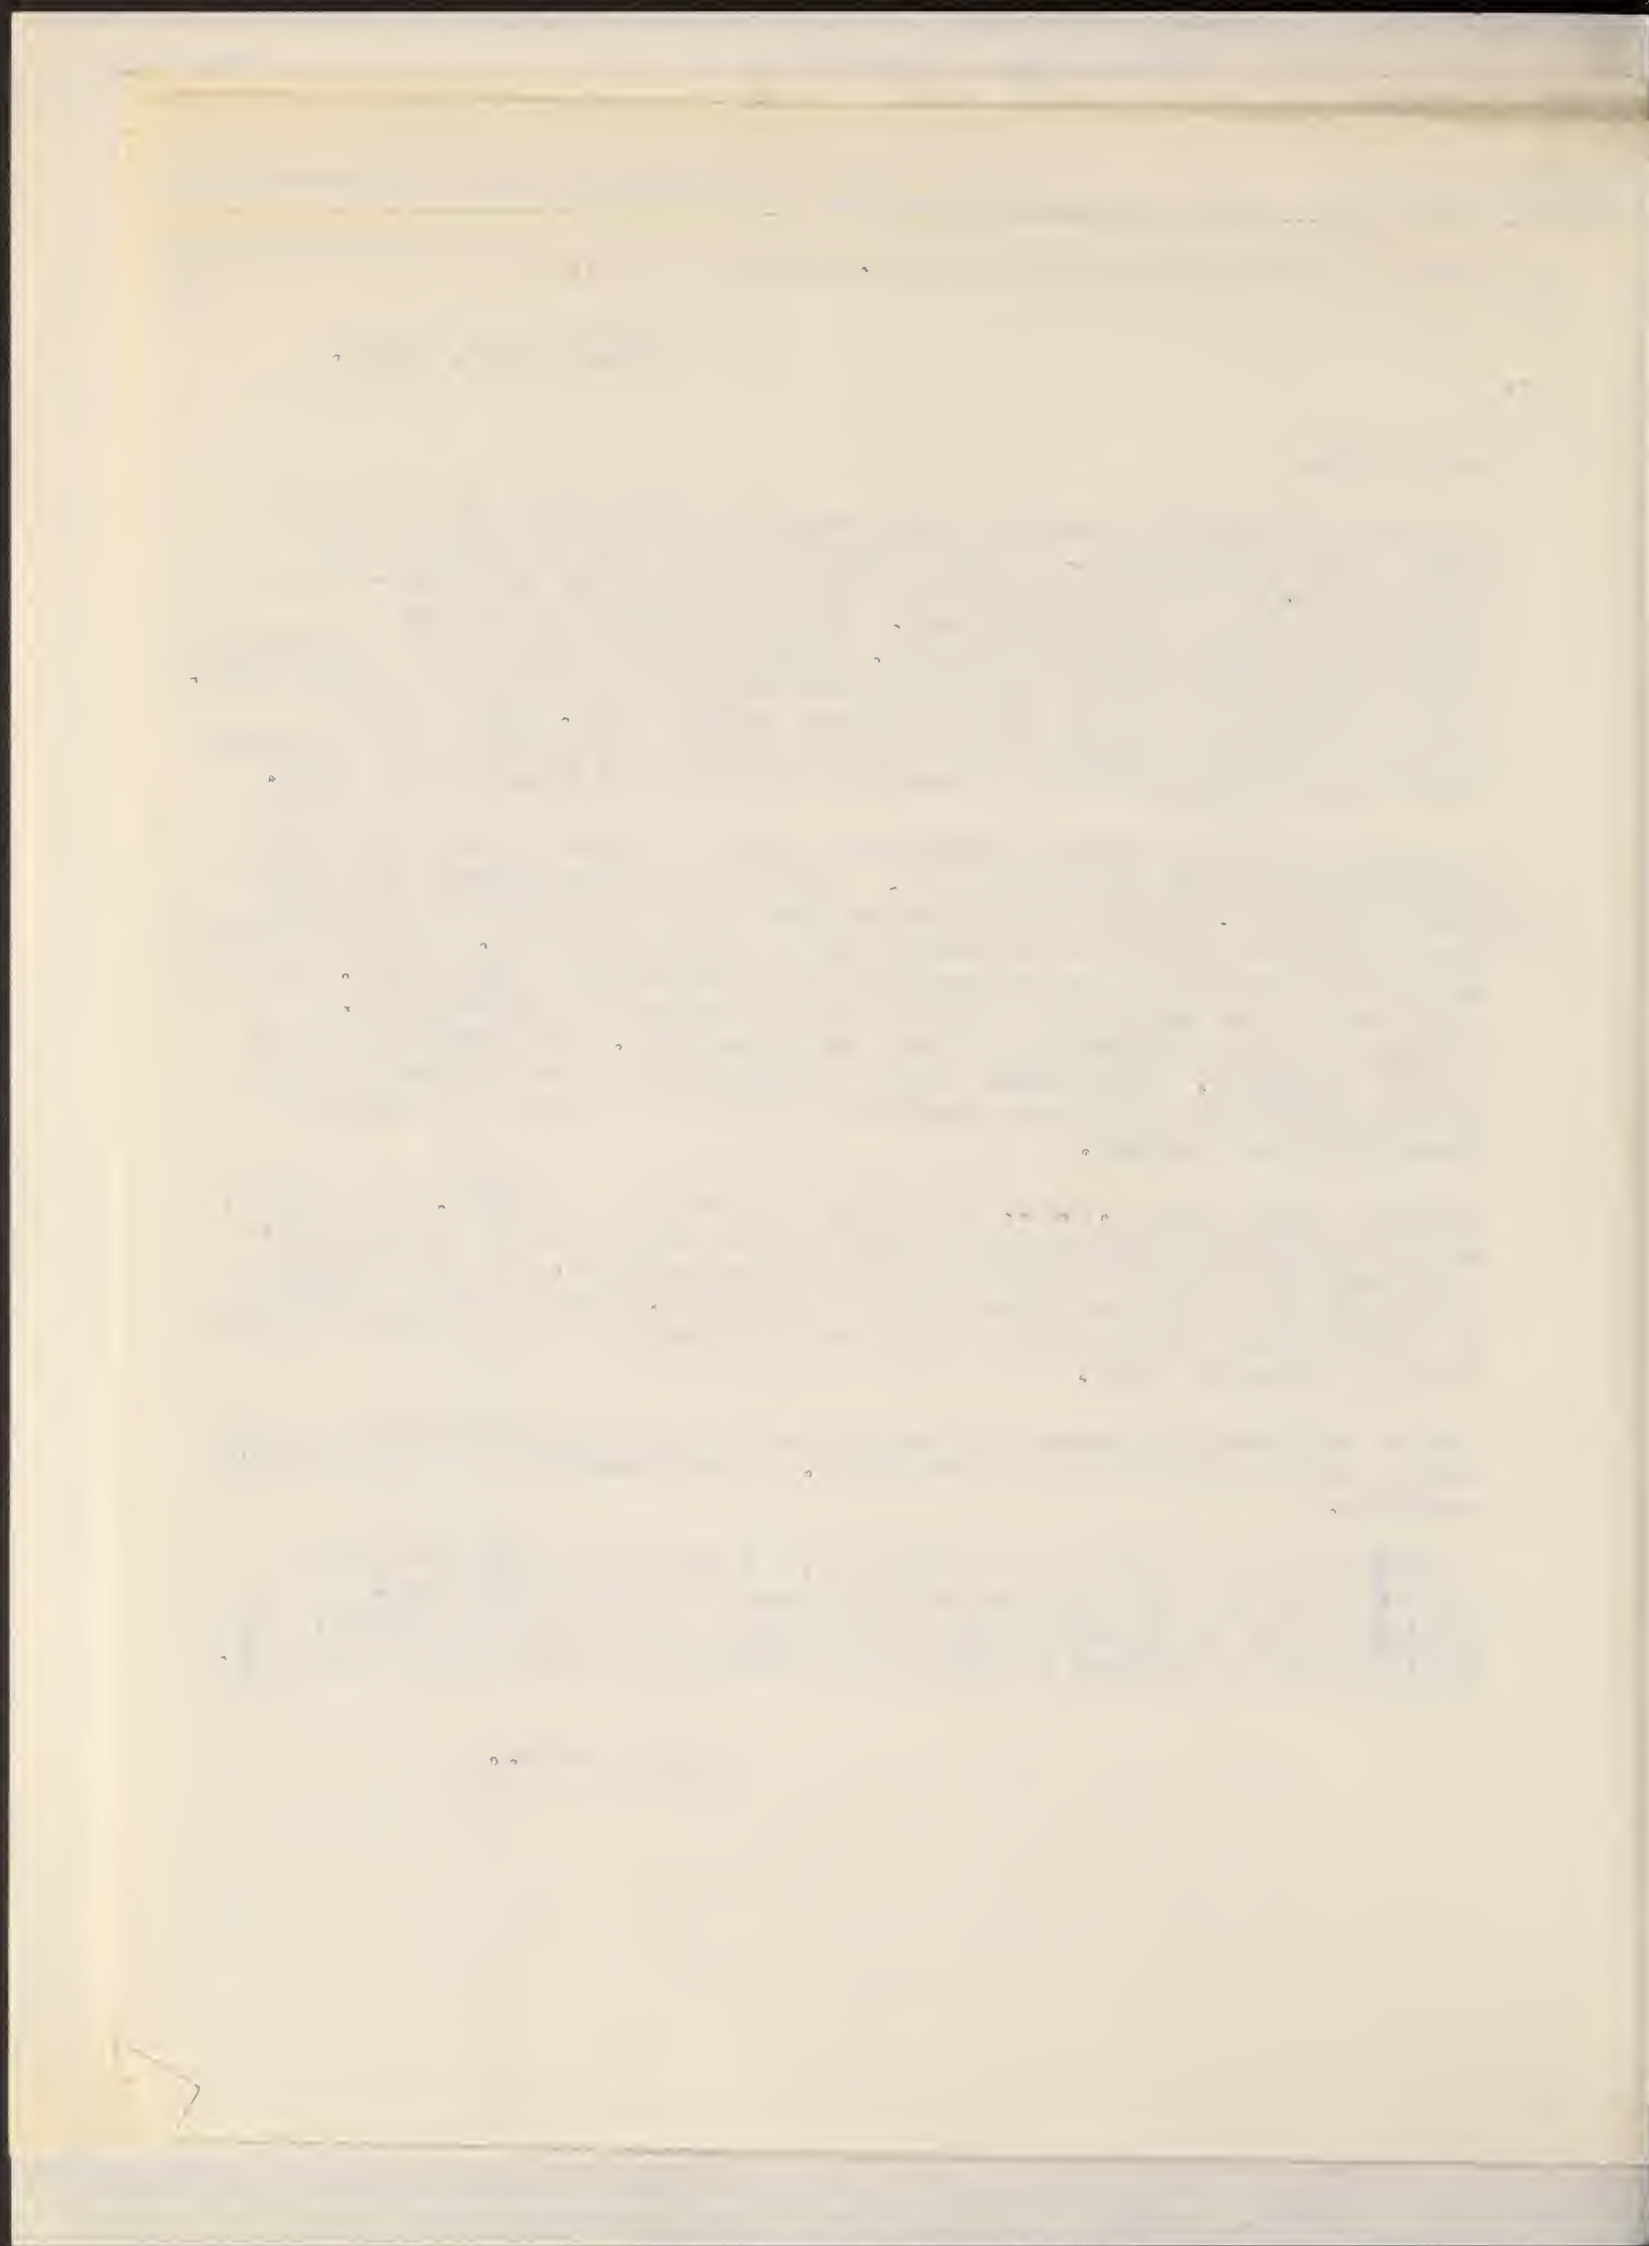

Leonard says Mary Hawley Meeks was married quite young and came back here to live when married. As far as I know they all came from Richmond. Mary Hawley Meeks was called "old mum" because she wouldn't allow the children to call her grandma. The children's mother was mum or mom and she was the old mum, so she said. I have seen her often and her ringlets that reached her shoulders. I think I have a Picture of her and Lycurgus. The Meeks were of Quaker descent. The Meeks always claimed that they were related to the Grants but I never knew how they were connected until I received your letter.

Hawley Boyce from U.S.A., formerly of Canada --a Capt. on a boat, always visited grandpa and wrote to him when too old to travel. His daughters usually look us up when over here. I have often wondered why his Christian name was Hawley. Could he be related to the Hawleys or why were they so interested in us? They visited Frank Clarks as well.

There now Gwen, I guess I have given you all the information I can and hope everything works out well. I am planning to go to Ted's wedding.

Best wishes and love to all of you. I must add God bless you all and may you be kept under the Shadow of His Presence. You see I am of Quaker descent too and I am thankful for it. From their views I learned a great deal that has helped me on in life.

Aunt Stella.

Copy of letter received from Mrs. Bryon Lutton of Yarker daughter of Joseph Wheeler Jr. Joseph Jr. was the son of Joseph Wheeler Sr. by his first wife

Yarker, Ontario
April 1st. 1957.

Dear Gwendolyn:

As we are cousins, but not seeing each other too often, I still claim the Meeks. Now my dear, I'm sorry I can't give you any details of the three marriages.

My father was Joseph, I think of the first family, and when my parents were married, they lived at Roblin. I know my dad was harness maker at Bath, but long before I was born. I lost brothers and sisters I never knew.

How Uncle Isaac went to Bell Rock is not known to me. I never saw Aunt Jane or Mary - only heard of them by visiting Min, Isaac's daughter.

The only cousin I know who could give you all the details would be Cousin Ella Davy, Aunt Nancy's daughter. She used to visit me and tell me about them all. She suffered a heavy stroke a year ago and I don't know whether she'd have the memory or not.

Cousin Ella lives at 400 Albert St. Kingston and if she is able, she can tell you all about the generation back.

My home was at Tweed so I can't tell you much. I'm glad to hear from you my dear, so let's know each other better by coming to see me.

Sincerely
Mrs. Bryon Lutton, or Blanche.

COPY OF LETTER RECEIVED FROM MRS. FRANK CLARK

BellRock, March 18th, 1957.

Dear Gwen:

Surely was surprised to gat a letter from you but, do hope you will excuse my negligence in answering.

The fire took the gimp right out of me and the men here fixing us up made a lot of confusion. Maude, not knowing about the fire, arrived with three children who broke out with measles the next day. I was like "Mrs. Wiggs in the Cabbage Patch", but not so able to take it all. I don't know too much about writing these days as I don't do much of it. I hope you can make this out.

Frank Clark was born at Napanee, Nov. 11, 1862.

Leonard Clark, his father, born at Binghamton.

Leonard Clark married Jane Hawley at Napanee, June 18th, 1850.

Jane Hawley, born August 21, 1824, two miles from Bath, Ontario-- also her sister, Mary. They were the only two blood children in the family.

Their parents were Andrew Hawley and Rachel Grant.

Frank's and your grandfather's grandmother was married three times:

1st---Cornwall---one son.

2nd---Hawley---two girls.

3rd---Wheeler---I am not sure how many children but do know:

Nancy Drader

Joseph Wheeler

Isaac Wheeler

Harriet Martin

George Wheeler.

Mrs. Byron Ruttan of Yarker is Joe Wheeler's daughter if you don't already know.

Frank Clark moved to BellRock in 1880. He was 18 years of age.

His father, Leonard Clark, had a blacksmith shop in Napanee for years.

You see where the Grants are a wee bit relation.

Do hope this helps out. It is all I am sure of just now--old memory slipping. Hope you are enjoying good health.

Love from Grace.

P.S. Verna (daughter, Mrs. Edgar Drew) wouldn't know.

COPY OF LETTER RECEIVED FROM MRS. CLAIR MEEKS CONCERNING HAWLEY, MARTIN, 1957 SNIDER, and SWITZER FAMILIES.

Dear Gwen:

Your letter came yesterday. I don't know much about the Martins. I just know John, Mrs. Peter's father lived on the back road--Jim McKeever's place. John B. was Mrs. Meeks' father. Jacob was Douglas', Harvey's, Ammalia Ludbrook's and Hyle's.

Mary Hawley Meeks had a sister, Frank Clark's mother. We called her aunt Jane. We don't know their father's name.

Grandpa Switzer's father's name was Oran. He had Alonzo, (out west) Philips Robert, William and Mary Anne. His wife died and he married again and had Hirriam and Jane. The first wife was a VanVaulkenburgh, the second a Card.

Grandpa Meeks had a brother Mortimer (May Revelle's father), and one sister Martha married Mike York. And another sister, Edith, married Alex Parker. One brother died. I think his name was Leonard.

It's hard to find ~~thin~~ gs. I asked Stella when we wanted to prove Clair's age, if she had ever seen a Meeks family bible that might have their births recorded. She said at one time Leonard wanted a B. Certificate and there was no way they could get one at all. As far as Leonard and Clair know they were never christened.

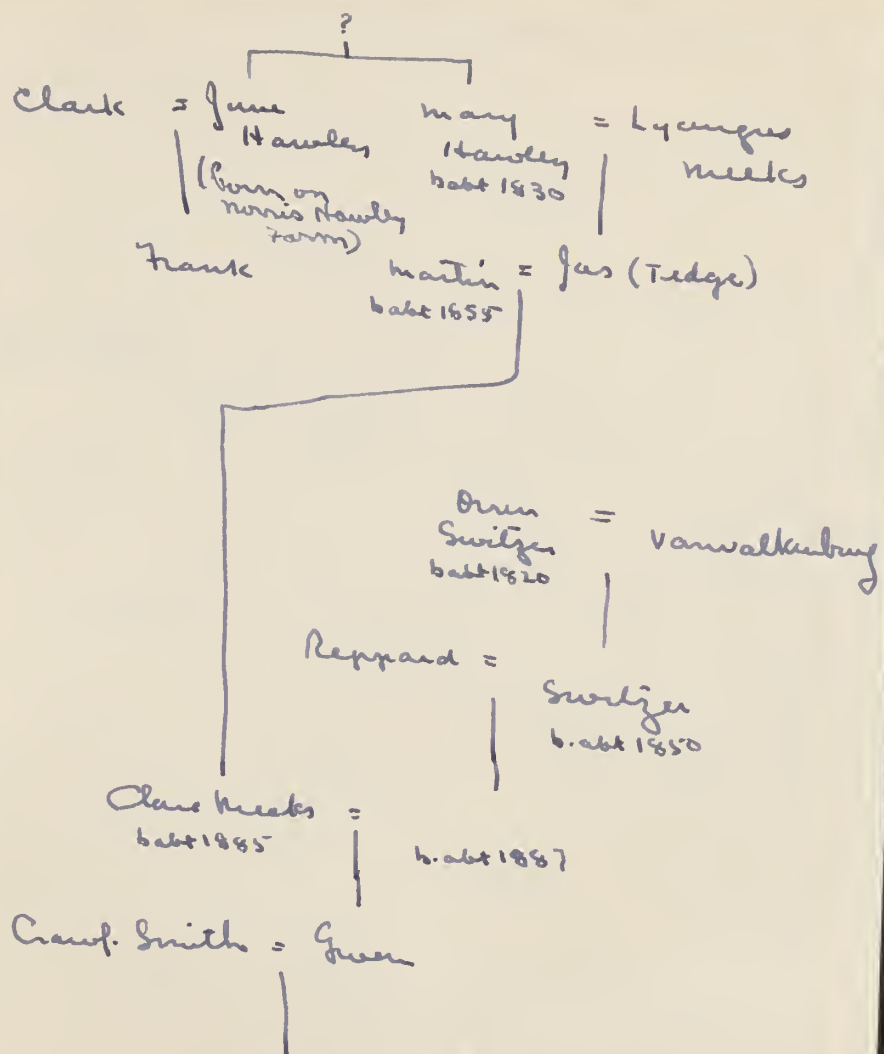

John B. and Jacob B. had brothers George and Walter. Walter went to the States and lived and died away. George died in an Insane Institution. I never saw either of them but have heard Mrs. Meeks talk about them and Allen too. George Snider married a Hughes. His daughter, Mrs. Anson Charlton lived at Harrowsmith. Walter married a great-aunt of Everton Card's.

John Martin married Margaret Mills and Silas Martin married Elizabeth Mills--two sisters who came from Vermont. John's family were: Mrs. Harper, Mrs. Peters, Elisha and Silas. Silas' family were: Rachel, and Lorinda. These two Martins lived near Verona and Eli lived at Bunker Hill in Bedford Township

Children of Elisha Martin were: John, Silas, Peter, William, James, Faxton, Eli, Pheobe and Rebecca.

COPY OF LETTER RECEIVED FROM MRS. CHAS. TINDAL (IDA SWITZER) DAUGHTER OF WILLIAM AND JANE SWITZER OF GOODERHAM AND GRANDAUGHTER OF ORAN SWITZER.

Stouffville, Ontario,
March, 1957.

Dear Gwen:

Here is all I know. The seventh generation was born here so father ~~told~~ me when Effie was born that she was the sixth. Earl and Dorothy are the 7th.
We are Pennslavania Dutch. Your mother & I are 5th generation.

I don't know where Grandpa Switzer lived when he was born. Father had an uncle Cephas, Uncle Will and I think, an uncle Sam and he had an aunt Debra.
Uncle Hiriam's sister was Abickle(Abigail) Jane. She didn't live to be very old.
Father said that those Huffmans down there were related to us--cousins.
If any of the older ones downthere are alive, they might be able to tell you.
The Switzer Reunion ~~will~~ be held at Lindsay fair grounds but as yet, I don't know the date. You will get an invitation ahead of time. We do hope you will all come.

I was sick when I got your letter--so dizzy I could scarcely walk.
Charlie is fine. I do hope I have ~~told~~ you something.
Father died in his 78th year and ~~he~~ has been gone 25years.

I was counting it up. Grandpa's father was born here then his son, but you can count it up for yourself.

Martha(my sister) is fine.

Love to ~~all~~,
Ida.

Josephine

Dear Mother

I am so glad to hear from you and hope you are all well. I am feeling better now but still a little weak.

I have not much news to write at present.

Yours truly

~ COPY OF LETTER RECEIVED FROM D.F. AYLSWORTH CONCERNING PERRY FAMILY

Napanee, Ontario,
March 9th, 1957.

Dear Gwen:

The Aylsworth family tree looks like this:

Bowen Aylsworth--Hannah Perry

David Aylsworth

Bowen Aylsworth--Elizabeth Anne Miller, sister of William and Norris

David Aylsworth--Elizabeth Fraser

David Fraser Aylsworth --Pearl Fletcher

David Fletcher

Andrew Ben
Carlton Muriel

William, to my memory doesn't fit in with any of the Aylsworths. There is a book somewhere compiled, I believe by Sir Alan Aylsworth, that tells the story, but I don't have a copy.

Some Fraser connections belong to the U.E.L. Society in Toronto, but that is on D.F.'s mother's side. George Anson Aylsworth, Sir Alan's brother who lived in Newburgh used to have all this information stored in his memory. I don't know if you could find out from any of his friends any details. The spelled their name with an "e" but they come from the same family.

Any connections we have with the Hogle family is on the Fraser side.

The Hawleys and Isaac Brisco's people were old family friends around there. I don't know whether Bertie Hawley could help you out or not.

Good Luck,

Pearl Aylsworth.

FOREWORD

MEEKS' INHERITANCE WITH LOYALIST CONNECTIONS is a simple attempt on my part to piece together the family tree of Joel Meeks, Sr., and his wife, Elizabeth Thompson. There are many Loyalist connections in our family tree, and I have noted the connection in each case by the use of a Family Chart.

Many persons who assisted me in my research over the years, are now deceased, and I would like to dedicate this booklet to their memory. In all cases, I have kept their letters and bits of information as "back-ups" to what I have written.

Without the loyal support and patient encouragement of my family members--Crawford, Susan, Jennifer, and Malcolm, the researching I have done would not have been possible. A special thanks is also offered to my cousin, Eva Gonu, who has encouraged, assisted, shared, and above all, laughed with me (a necessary ingredient offered to frustrated researchers).

It is my hope that others belonging to the family tree of Joel and Elizabeth Meeks may add their lineage to what I have recorded, so each family branch may retain a lasting memorial for future generations.

If I may be of assistance to those who may be seeking, please do not hesitate to contact me. Genealogy is a two-way street!

Loyally yours,

Gwen Smith

FAMILY OF JOEL MEEKS

1.

This the story of my Great-great-grandparents, Joel and Elizabeth Meeks as I know it. In our family, Joel Meeks was known to be a very staunch Quaker, who never wasted words. We never knew his wife's given or maiden name. We know that she was claimed to be the first white woman north of the drowned lands at Bell Rock, and that Joel Meeks was supposed to have drawn her across the ice on a sleigh to her new home. The story as I know it is that he came to Canada and worked on the survey party when the townships were being settled. His brother, Ed, came with him. He supposedly wanted a certain piece of land, but was disappointed when he received a parcel of much less value. I have found most of this to be erroneous, although I understand that he did live at Bell Rock in the early years.

I wrote to Ottawa, requesting a copy of his application for land and learned that neither Joel Meeks, nor any other Meeks had made application for land, or had been given a grant of land. I then went to the Registry Office in Kingston and was told that he had never owned land at Bell Rock. Bell Rock is in Portland Township, about thirty miles north of Kingston.

Now I should like to share with you a little of what I have learned.

Joel Meeks, and his wife Elizabeth Thompson were born in U.S. All of their nine children were born in Canada. Joel Meeks, and his brother Edward, lived for a time at Albany, N.Y. The Meeks men were, in most cases, excellent coopers. One Joseph Meeks, still living in the State of New York in the 1830's, was considered to be the leading cabinet maker in the U.S. and ran a furniture store in New York city. I have yet to discover the actual reason for their coming to Upper Canada, but there are two possible reasons. Joel Meeks, in early years taught school in Fifth Town (Marysburgh), and later moved to Camden Township, near Roblin. Joel and Elizabeth are buried on their farm.

Elizabeth had a brother Levi, who enjoyed the odd drink, and one day he and his sister were driving back to Roblin by way of a very steep hill and a very rough road. Elizabeth asked Levi to slow down the horses a bit as she did not think he was capable of managing the horses. He replied "Betsy, if you are going to die, you may as well die with your brother beside you." So we know she was called Betsy by her family members. Levi's claim for land as the son of a Loyalist is recorded on another page.

As the daughter of a Loyalist, Elizabeth was entitled to a grant of land. I have examined records in the Registry Office in Napanee re the farm on which they resided. One entry, with no explanation, lists Joel Meeks as the owner of the farm. The year being 1871, nine years following Betsy's death, I believe he inherited the land following her death. Immediately following the American Revolution, it became necessary to declare one's allegiance to an independent nation, rather than to the Crown, if one wished to remain "south of the border." Being a Quaker, it is quite possible that Joel and his brother came to Upper Canada to avoid swearing allegiance. The possibility of marrying the daughter of a Loyalist, and receiving free land, may have been another reason. Often, it is recorded, Joel was noted for his generosity, but not his hard labour. Family members have told me that he often shared "first fruits" with visitors who came to the Thompson home. The "first fruits" had been grown by the Thompsons, without Joel's assistance.

In the above-mentioned document, Joel struck out the word "sworn", wrote the word "affirmed" above it and continued, "I am a Quaker by profession."

In all of my researching I have found seven children only. Following the death of Mrs. Arsula Arnold, in 1979, her daughter found an old book in the bottom of a trunk. Written in this book were the names of Joel and Elizabeth, and all of their children. It also included the birth dates and some dates of death. I have also learned that Joel William, called William, was killed by a team of runaway horses while descending the hill going into Roblin. He was supposed to have been killed at an early age. Perhaps this is the reason Elizabeth dreaded going down the hill with Levi. In all probability, Joel William was buried in the Meeks plot on the farm.

Descendents of the eldest son, claimed his name to be Joel Jr. Is the Pythagoris mentioned in the records, the ancestor of these perons? Was his name Pythagoris Joel? If the eldest son was buried in Dexter, N.Y., it does not seem possible, that he was killed by a team of horses at Roblin. Those who gave me the information are now deceased, but I did obtain it from two very reliable people. I shall give their branch of the family tree as it was given to me and perhaps in the future we may discover the answers. A Joel W. Meeks acted as a witness to a document in 1871, but by this date, there were other persons bearing the same name living in the area, and I cannot say whether the person who signed was a son or a nephew. This document lists the remaining children of Joel Sr. as Rosannah Asselstine, Jemima Deschene, Susannah Schermerhorn, Elizabeth Meeks, Lycurgus Meeks, and Andrew Meeks--no mention of Pythagoris or Joel William.

Joel Meeks is remembered as an austere Quaker whose iron hand and strict beliefs were often resented. Two family stories bear this out:

1. A traveller arrived at mealtime and was offered nourishment. He declined, hoping to be coaxed. Realizing that he had a long way to go before dark, he relented by stating he had changed his mind. Joel's firm answer of "Thou shalt not lie in my house", made the traveller realize that he should have accepted the first offer.
2. A gentleman arrived at Joel's house to enquire concerning the buying of a team of horses. Joel quoted his price. Thinking he might be able to convince him to sell cheaper, the would-be buyer declined. After waiting for an hour or two, he realized that Joel was not about to change his mind, so he decided to take the team at the price quoted. Joel looked him in the eye and said "Thou shalt not lie to me."

The stories we have been told about our great-great-grandfather remind me of a poem which might be appropriate:

When you get to heaven,
You will likely view
Relatives, whose presence there
Will be a shock to you.
Do not turn around.
Do not even stare.
Countless "kissin' cousins"
Will be surprised to see YOU there.

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the problem of the origin of life. It is shown that the problem is one of the most important and most difficult in the history of science. The author discusses the various theories of the origin of life, and shows that the most plausible is the theory of spontaneous generation. This theory is based on the fact that life is a complex of many different parts, and that these parts are all found in the same place, and at the same time. This is a strong argument in favor of the theory of spontaneous generation.

2. The second part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the problem of the evolution of life. FATHER'S GRAVE

Joel Meeks, died July 12th, 1878
Aged 82 years, 7 months, and 13 days.

MOTHER'S GRAVE

Elizabeth, wife of Joel Meeks, died June 19th, 1862
Aged 62 years, 3 months, 7 days.

After obtaining permission from the proper authorities, the tombstone bearing the above inscription, was moved from its isolated position on the family farm near Roblin, to the Meeks Cemetery near Bell Rock. My husband and I, with the aid of our Grandson, pulled it along planks over two stone fences, through poison ivy until we were able to load it into our van. Earl Meeks has kindly pieced the three parts together, and installed it in the cemetery on his farm.

Please note: In most cases I have capitalized the "g" in grandfather, etc., in hopes that the relationship of one person to another, might be a bit easier to pick out, when scanning the pages.

THE EFFECT OF THE DIETARY RESTRICTION ON THE METABOLISM OF THE RAT

J. H. M. VAN DER KAM, M.D., and J. H. VAN DER KAM, M.D., Department of Physiology, University of Amsterdam, The Netherlands

The effect of dietary restriction on the metabolism of the rat was studied by means of the indirect calorimetric method. The results show that the basal metabolic rate of the rat is lowered by dietary restriction. This lowering is not due to a change in the composition of the body, but to a change in the metabolic activity of the tissues. The effect of dietary restriction on the metabolism of the rat is reversible. When the rat is returned to its normal diet, the basal metabolic rate returns to its normal level. The effect of dietary restriction on the metabolism of the rat is not affected by the duration of the restriction. The effect of dietary restriction on the metabolism of the rat is not affected by the degree of the restriction. The effect of dietary restriction on the metabolism of the rat is not affected by the sex of the animal. The effect of dietary restriction on the metabolism of the rat is not affected by the age of the animal. The effect of dietary restriction on the metabolism of the rat is not affected by the strain of the animal. The effect of dietary restriction on the metabolism of the rat is not affected by the season of the year. The effect of dietary restriction on the metabolism of the rat is not affected by the time of day. The effect of dietary restriction on the metabolism of the rat is not affected by the time of year. The effect of dietary restriction on the metabolism of the rat is not affected by the time of day or year. The effect of dietary restriction on the metabolism of the rat is not affected by the time of day or year.

Received for publication, June 15, 1934.
Revised manuscript received, August 15, 1934.

It does not appear that the undermentioned petitioners have received any land, order for land or scrip as the children of U.E. Loyalists. As they have been reported by the Deputy Inspector General entitled to privileges, it is recommended that scrip equal to 200 acres be granted to each.

Those checked in (*) are mentioned in Levi's petition for land, 16 Feb. 1850. Since Samuel is not mentioned in Levi's petition, I think we must assume that he was deceased by this date.

Andrew, baptized June 12, 1799, received his land grant in Orillia Township. He sold the property and located in North Gwillimbury. Christian received land in Orillia Township and Samuel received land in Mara Township.

Andrew was killed by the fall of a tree on the 28th March, 1853 and is buried in the Mann Burying Ground at Keswick, Ontario.

William Thompson's name (U.E.) is recorded on the Muster Roll of the King's Rangers 6 Oct. 1784. He was alone at the time and there was no record of wife or family. In Andrew's petition for his land grant dated Feb. 6, 1822, he is listed as the son of William Thompson, U.E., deceased. Some records name William's wife as Lanya, others name her as Lydia. There are so many Thompsons listed in records with the same name, it would be difficult for me to name the wives of William's sons. However, one record records that a Jennie Thompson, of the proper age, married a Buckley. The Buckley name has been associated with the Meeks family for many generations, so I believe it is safe to assume that this Jennie was Jane Thompson, mentioned in Levi's petition.

I FAMILY OF JOEL MEEKS AND ALMIRA ACKERMAN: (Was he Pythagoris?)

This Joel Meeks was recorded as living at Plevna at one time. He and his wife are buried at Dexter, N.Y. Their children were:

- (1) Damon, who lived at Plevna, married Hannah Killingbeck and had:
 - Joel, who married Frances Berkman; Herbert, who married Molly Sartwell;
 - Eva, who married James Cuthbertson; Hannah, who married Charles Berkman;
 - Pytheous, who married Florence Zankes, Ferguson, who married Pearl Ritter;
 - Guy, who married Jennie Fraiser, and Ruth, who married Harry Cox.
 Hannah and Damon are buried at Theresa, N.Y.
- (2) Pytheous, married Catherine Killingbeck, and had the following children:
 - Hersey, married Ethel-----; Edith, married Homer Moore;
 - Margaret, married Robert Olsen; Williard, married Florence Briggs;
 - Merlin, married Agnus Baldwin.
- (3) Josephus, married Margaret Killingbeck and had seven children:
 - Annie, married Fred Giles; William, married Elizabeth Ball;
 - Jerome, married Florence Moscoe; Nora, married Allen Ross;
 - Gordon, married Alice Ward; Edgar, married Flora Peet;
 - Gilbert, married Nellie Joseph.
- (4) John married May Jane Tompkins. John was deaf. Four of his children, Essley, Lena, Grace and Darrell, were deaf. Others were John, and Lena married Curtis Mills and had one daughter Olive, who was also deaf.
- (5) Rosannah, married her first cousin, Dexter, son of Andrew Meeks. This marriage is mentioned in the Andrew Meeks family tree. One daughter of Dexters, May, married Winford Merrick, and still resides in Watertown, N.Y.
- (6) Lycurgus, the youngest son, married Auria VanKoughnett. They had Eldora, Lewis, Pearl, Erma, Arnold, Frank, Darrell, Violet and Betty.

Please note that three Killingbeck sisters, married three Meeks brothers. Tom Killingbeck of Northbrook often remarked that he found it difficult to decide which relatives were doubly related and which were singly related.

I have a list of the grandchildren, if any person is interested.

II. ROSANNAH MEEKS FAMILY:

Rosannah Meeks married John Asseltine of Roblin and at the time of the original writing of this tree, I was told that there was only one child from this union-- I never knew its name. He had a sore on his back, thought to be caused by his suspenders. It turned to cancer and he died young. In 1978, while visiting the cemetery where Joel and Elizabeth are buried, we discovered a large tombstone which had toppled and it was too heavy for us to lift. The stone bears the name of Ryerson Asseltine, who died at the age of 33 years. We have also been told that Rosannah and John are buried in this cemetery. Their inscription might well be on the side of the stone facing the ground. I later learned that a daughter, Mary Elizabeth, who married Edward Thompson, was born to Rosannah and John Asseltine. Present information includes:

1. Ryerson, born 14th of 9th month, 1840, married Margaret Grant, 22 Sept., 1867. They had three children:

- (i) Betsy Ann, born 4 Jan., 1868
- (ii) Rosannah, born 16 Sept., 1869
- (iii) Edna Alwildia, the youngest.

According to information given on the tombstone, Ryerson Asseltine must have died in 1873. In my possession are two documents drawn up for the signature of Joel Meeks, and witnessed by Ryerson Asseltine. Both documents are dated 1872.

2. Mary Elizabeth, born 7 day of 7th month, 1843, m. Edward Thompson.

Children were:

- (i) Rosannah, m. (1) Peter Davis, - one child, Cora
- (2) John Gollinger - two children -
Mary, m. John Porter of Odessa
Vera, d. at 8 years of age.

- (ii) Arsula, m. George Arnold, - four daughters:

- (1) Velma, m. Jonathon Allen of Adolphustown.
Jonathon is deceased and Velma still lives on the family farm.
- (2) Reta, m. (1) Clarence Grothier, of Watertown
(2) Fred Lewis, of Watertown.
- (3) Verna, never married, and lives in Toronto
- (4) Meeda, m. Vergual Bowman - two sons:
Philip & Wayne.

The Bowman family reside in Toronto.

Susannah Meeks, born 1821, married in 1838, George Schermerhorn of Roblin. She died Sept. 3rd, 1898, and is buried at Roblin. I have seen her tombstone. She was described to me by one of her grandsons as a shiftless woman, content with one dress, her pipe and her Bible. She had thirteen children:

1. Joel, born May 7, 1839, died Jan. 13, 1916; married Sarah, daughter of Seth Wheeler;

9. Mary, born 1853, married Matthew Hart;
10. John, born Dec. 31, 1858, died Oct. 29, 1933, married Oct. 1894, Naomi Thompson; They had a daughter Violet who was born 1900 and died of the flu in 1918. They also had a son Roy, who married a Miss Bell and he is a Wesleyan Methodist Minister now living on Camden Road, Napanee. One of Roy's sons was a Dr. in Kingston, and died young. Rev. Roy Schermerhorn has spoken with me concerning the Meeks family. He remembers his dad telling him that Susannah had related to him that as a child she would be whipped by her father if he heard her singing. (Apparently singing was a sin to the early-day Quakers).
11. Almira, born May 14, 1855, married Mar. 2, 1872, Wm. Winter of Listowel, Ont.;
12. Miles, born May 19th, 1861, died June 11, 1937. Married Charlotte Rynders - no children;
13. Matilda, born Jan. 15, 1863, died May 19, 1929 at Lima N.Y. married Miles VanValkenburg of Selby.
I think this VanValkenburg was a son of Gilbert VanValkenburg, brother of Paul.

The Schermerhorns have a very extensive family tree and show great pride in their Schermerhorn heritage.

IV LEVI MEEKS - No family member has given me any information containing the name of Levi, so I believe we can only assume that he died in infancy or childhood.

V LYCURGUS MEEKS FAMILY:

Lycurgus Meeks was my great-grandfather. His wife, Mary Hannah Hawley, was the daughter of Andrew Hawley and Rachel Grant. Andrew was the son of Sheldon Hawley, U.E., and his wife, Hannah Johnston. Hannah was the daughter of Sgt. James Johnston, U.E., and Sheldon Hawley was the son of Capt. Jephtha Hawley, U.E. who was in charge of the batteaux as they proceeded up the St. Lawrence, bringing the Loyalists to the Bay of Quinte area. The Hawleys settled at Bath and a plaque honouring Capt. Jephtha was unveiled during the Centennial Celebrations of the Village of Bath. His first wife had died prior to his coming to this area, and he married the widow Lockwood. The little community of Hawley in South Frederick-sburgh township was named in honour of Capt. Jephtha, and his descendents. (See chart of Joseph Jenckes, Capt. Jephtha Hawley, Sheldon Hawley & Sgt. James Johnston.) The old Hawley house, immediately behind our home at the next concession, was occupied for many years by Jephtha's descendents, and my great-grandmother, Mary Hawley is reported to have been born there. The house was completely dismantled a few years ago, taken to Upper Canada Village, and parts of it were incorporated into other houses during the restoration.

Sgt. James Johnston was an Irishman. "Bill" Johnston, the noted pirate of the St. Lawrence was one of his sons. Like all families, they had problems. Radicals existed in the days of the Loyalist migration, as well as today.

I have in my possession a copy of the Marriage Certificate of Andrew Hawley and Rachel Grant, a copy of the Baptismal Certificate of Mary Hawley, and a copy of a letter stating that Andrew Hawley was interred by Rev. John Stoughton in St. John's Cemetery Bath, and a copy of his Application for Land, as a Loyalist. He had been excused from the war of 1812-14 because of the loss of one leg.

Lycurgus and Mary resided on the farm north of Bell Rock, Lot 20, Concession 11. Lycurgus died a few years before Mary and they are both buried in the Meeks' family plot on the farm. When Mary's grandchildren started to arrive, she refused to be called "grandma" and wished to be known as "mum". This nickname remained and even today, she is remembered as "mum" Meeks. She had long ringlets which hung about her shoulders.

Their children were:

1. Mortimer, married Ursulla Walroth and had the following children:
Frank, whom I believe never married;
Forest, who married and lived at Nobel, Ontario;
Hilton, married, had a family and lived in Northern Ontario;
Lynne, married Thos. Grant, and died when her son Hawley was born or shortly after. Hawley married, and has Evelyn, who married Ted Graham, Lois, who married Leland Amey, and Bobby.
May, married Benjamin Revelle and had Stanley, Earl, Russell, Capt. Clarence, and a daughter Daisey 1891-1905, and Russell.
Florence (Flo) married Wilson Thompson and her family tree follows:
Martha, married a Thurston, and had one child.

My cousin Eva remembers her Grandmother telling her that she visited Flo when she was a widow. Her husband had died of throat cancer and left her with a large family of small children. Another cousin, Jewel Bell, remembers that as a young girl, she, her brother Noel, and her mother Edith Meeks Parker, drove from Mountain Grove to Harlowe by ox-cart and the mosquitoes and black flies almost consumed them.

Mortimer Meeks was postmaster of BellRock P.O. for a short period of time and also kept a small store in the Rufus Grant house. Many of his letters are on file in the L & A Museum at Napanee. He is buried at Whitney, Ontario.

2. James Hawley Meeks - (My Grandfather), born, July 18, 1860, married Emma Arthusa Snider, daughter of John B. Snider, and his wife Rebecca Martin. They celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary November 15, 1944. Emma was a direct descendent of George Scirver, U.E. & John Pickle, U.E., also Capt. David Babcock, U.E. and Amos Martin (U.E.???) See family charts attached.

My Grandmother lost her sight in her early sixties. As I approach that age, I realize what a loss it must have been to an active, intelligent, lady. I can remember her accompanying us to Kingston. My brother, Leland, was her youngest grandchild, and she wished to purchase a complete summer outfit for him, so she could remember him that way. dressed in the clothes she had purchased. When we often called to see her, she would judge our height, feel our hair and our faces, and say "Oh, how I wish I could see you." Although at times she was a trying person, her life was an example of true courage. She could, by using her cane, and by counting her steps, walk to the store, unaided. She managed most of her own housework, including the washing. Her faith was truly her "oaken staff".

My Grandfather was a man of the out-of-doors. He loved to hunt, fish, and pick berries. As a child, his mother had called him her "Teddy Bear" and throughout life, the nickname of "Tedge" had remained. Although his formal education was limited, he made the most of it and was an avid reader. My memories of their evenings together will always remain. Grandpa would sit sideways to the table, the lamp would be brought closer to him, his old slouch hat would be pulled down on his head. Grandma usually sat on the couch or in the rocking chair with her hands folded in her lap. First he would read the Whig-Standard and then the Bible. (Anyone knowing my Grandfather, would be surprised to know he read the Bible). His pronunciations were always a subject of amusement to our family. He always called the Russians, "those damned Rooshins", and the communists, "those damned commune-ists". Once he told me about a "loon-attic ass-u-lum", and it took some figuring to realize he meant a lunatic asylum. He would amuse us with his made-up songs and we loved them.

Grandpa died in early March, 1947, and Grandma died in November, three or four years later. For her funeral service, Rev. Wm. March chose as his text: "I have fought the fight; I have finished the course; I have kept the faith." It was a fitting tribute to a courageous lady.

James and Emma had three sons:

1. Arnold Clair (my father), born Aug. 31, 1885, married my mother, Mary Rosetta Reppard Snider, born March 19, 1884, on January 1, 1907. She was a direct descendent of Philip Switzer, U.E; Mathias Rose, U.E. She was the daughter of Mary Anne Switzer and her husband, George Washington Reppard, a Civil War Veteran of Shamokin, Pa. In his younger years he had come to Iron Ore Junction (Godfrey) in search of employment in the mines. No work was available, but the Goodfellow family provided board and lodging. He had joined the army, been honourably discharged because he could not prove his age, joined again when his age was proven, and honourably discharged at the close of the war. I have copies of his complete army file and at my request, the Veterans' Administration of Washington, D.C. are supplying a marker for his grave. It will be erected later this year by my husband. He and Mary Anne are buried in Parham cemetery.

At the age of 34, Mary Anne Reppard died from the effects of T.B. She left three small children--my mother, who went to live with family connections, Mr. & Mrs. Douglas Snider of Verona; my uncle Wilbert, who remained with grandpa; and my aunt Jennie, who went to live with her mother's first cousin, Ella Snider and her husband, Allen. My mother was never legally adopted. Allen Snider was the son of Douglas and Lorinda Snider. Douglas, Lorinda, Allen & Ella Snider are buried in Verona cemetery, but the stone has disappeared.

My parents' traits of hard work and complete financial honesty need no repeating here. During the depression, we were fortunate to be living on a farm. We had our own meat (beef and pork), maple syrup, milk, eggs, vegetables and wood. No hungry soul was ever turned from our door. Salesmen made it a point to arrive in time for dinner, as my mother never charged for a meal. Often she would spend the whole of Sunday cooking over a wood stove for 20 - 25 persons. The vegetables and berries were canned by the dozens of sealers and the steaks of the beef were always canned and put away for summer's eating. During the winter months, the outside cellarway served as a refrigerator.

Two instances stand out in my memory to emphasize the stress placed on honesty, and the importance of owing no debts. One evening before Christmas, after my dad had paid the taxes and the fire insurance, he held up his pocket-book (as he called it), and showed us a five dollar bill. He explained that this five dollar bill would have to provide us with coal oil and other necessities until spring. Of course the pantry was already stocked with a cwt. of sugar, flour, etc. We often went to bed early that winter, so we would not burn the lamps. My mother would spend hours sitting beside the kitchen range, knitting, when we would be sitting around the kitchen table doing our homework, or playing checkers. One evening, when the light was none too bright, she was knitting woollen stockings for me. She always saved all pieces of wool and knit them into the stockings as she went along. This evening, by mistake, she picked up a long piece of purple wool and knit it into the leg of one of my stockings. Next morning, I had new stockings with a purple ring around one shin, but I did not dare object.

Cakes, iced with maple sugar and jello served with whipped cream were a favourite of most of our visitors. The Rev. Alfred Bishop family were frequent supper guests. Lloyd loved jello and whipped cream. This past March, while visiting Westminster Abbey, we passed through the special chapel dedicated to the members of the R.A.F. who gave their lives during W.W.II. The key to the cabinet which held the Book of Remembrance could not be found, when I asked to see if Lloyd's name was inscribed there. He had joined the R.A.F. prior to the war and was Canada's first casualty. Who would think of remembering jello and whipped cream while in Westminster Abbey!

In her 37th year, my mother was confined to hospital for the first time, with an abdominal aneurysm. Major surgery corrected the ailment, but a year later she fell breaking her hip. Recovery again, and a desire to keep moving, resulted in a fractured pelvis. My dad cared for her to the best of his ability because of her desire to remain in her own home, but on May 28, 1973, he suffered a heart attack, and died early the next morning. Mother followed him, Feb. 21, 1974. (Both buried in Verona)

Doris Esther, b. Sept., 1925, died following day. She is buried in Meeks plot.

My earliest recollection of Uncle Leonard was the enjoyment we experienced at a corn husking bee, held in his barn. Lanterns were hung from the beams of the barn, so the floor would be lighted. We husked corn, threw cobs, and enjoyed ourselves, until some prankster decided he smelled smoke. False alarm! The refreshments following the husking were sumptuous. I appreciated my many visits with him in his latter years which were spent in a nursing home.

Aunt Stella chose my name and I adored her. She was the daughter of Alzina Shea of Bell Rock, and her first husband, Sam, son of Paul VanVolkenburgh, and his second wife, Sophia Merrill. Sam was a half brother of my Great-grandmother, Mary Jane, who married Oren Switzer. Sam died when Aunt Stella was very young and she was educated by the Quakers and embraced their beliefs. Hers was a religion in action. She lovingly cared for her mother and my Grandparents in their old age. During the first week of March of this year, it was our privilege, while in England, to cross the Straits of Dover, rent a car in Boulogne, and motor to a little village called Lapugnoy, near Bethune, France, where we paid our respects at the grave of Earl James, half-brother of my Aunt Stella. Although it was pouring rain, we were able to bring back beautiful pictures of the area to my Aunt Stella's family.

I should like to share this Benediction I received in a letter from Aunt Stella:

"I must add God bless you all and you be kept under the Shadow of His Presence. You see I am of Quaker descent too, and I am thankful for it; from views I learned a great deal that has helped me on in life."

(Signed) Aunt Stella

(1) 1970-1980

3. Leonard Meeks - Leonard was a third son of Lycurgus & Mary Meeks. He died while still in his youth and is buried in the Meeks plot. He was named after his uncle, Leonard Clark, who had married his mother's sister, Mary Jane Hawley. In turn, my uncle Leonard Meeks, was named after this Leonard.
4. Martha Meeks, born 1860, married Mike York. Was she a twin of my grandfather James? She and Mike were very much in love, but the dread disease of T.B. had taken its toll. In spite of her illness, they decided to go ahead with their wedding plans. James York, brother of Mike, owned the farm which was later purchased by my father. She was taken there, dressed, carried out of doors where a couch was placed and she sat on the couch while the vows were being exchanged. She died six months later. As a child, this story fascinated me, and I would wander over to the Meeks Cemetery and peer into the tangled mess of lilacs and raspberry bushes and read the inscription on her, the only tombstone in the cemetery. I always believed it would make a very interesting story to be used as the basis for a movie. Mike married Mrs. James York's sister for his second wife and raised a very large family.
5. Edith Meeks, 1863 - 1910, married Alex Parker, 1856 - 1954. Edith was a school teacher in the Hartington area. She too, had bronchial problems and died at age 47, leaving three older sons, a daughter of 10 and a son of 6. She and Alex are buried in Mountain Grove Cemetery.

Their children were:

Clare and Clara - twins. Clara died as an infant and is buried in Meeks plot. Clare was killed in W.W.I. and his death is recorded in "Lest We Forget". During our trip to the war graves in France, as a tribute to my cousin Jewel, we visited his grave and took pictures. It was almost dark and a rain was falling, but we were able to take discernible photos for the relatives. He is buried in the cemetery near Haynecourt, which is just north of the main road which passes from Arras to Cambrai, France.

Ray, married Gladys Ellis and they and our family were very close. Violet and Mabel were close in age to me and my brothers, and we had such fun together!

Ray's children were: Violet, deceased Sept. 1979; Mabel, who married John Blake, and Susanne is their daughter. Mabel & John deceased; Clare, married Dolly Steinberg, and they have Allen; Rosemary, married Roland Jutras, lives in British Columbia, and they have three children; Ray, who is married, and lives in Alberta.

James, married Ruth Fleming and they have Dorcas, Eleanor and Jean. James is deceased.

Jewel, married Wm. Bell, and they have Buelah Joan, who married George Booth.

Jewel and Bill live with their daughter at the Hockley Valley Motel near Orangeville, Ontario.

Noel, married Margaret Kellar and has one son Russell. Noel is buried in Mountain Grove cemetery.

Following Edith's death Alex Parker remarried. We still maintained a close relationship with uncle Alex and aunt Maggie. They had two daughters: Greta, who married Wilfred Price. She died, leaving a small daughter. Wilfred later married Greta's sister, Aleta.

$$f(x) = \int_0^x \frac{1}{1+t^2} dt$$ for $x \in \mathbb{R}$. It is shown that $f(x)$ is an odd function and that it satisfies the inequality

$$f(x) \leq \frac{1}{2} \ln \frac{x+1}{x-1}$$

There is a slight mix-up in records re Lavinia and Lucinda. Reid's "Sons and Daughters of American Loyalists" lists Mary, as the wife of John B. Snider. It is possible that her name was Mary Lavinia. It also lists Lavinia as the wife of Simon Ashley. We know this to be incorrect as we are direct descendents of Lavinia and John B. Snider, and the Lutheran Records verify my statements. Lavinia and John B., at one time, resided on Lot 17, Conc. 7, Ernestown. We believe they are buried in Ebenezer Lutheran Cemetery, Morven.

In the Scriver family, the name Lavinia was nicknamed "Viney".

The Kellar and Lloyd names are frequently found in Scriver records.

Amos Martin joined the rebel forces and served at the Battle of Bunker's Hill, in 1776. He deserted, changed his name from Tanner to Martin, fled to Vermont, where in 1781 or 2 he married Susannah Ball, then came to Canada.

He served as constable of Amherst Island 1784-6 and was the first Senior Warden of the Masonic Lodge at Bath. The marriage of Silas Nichols and Elizabeth Heather is recorded in the parish records of St. John's of Ernestown. Susannah and Amos are named as witnesses--3 May, 1797.

Amos Martin's name appears on the Supplementary Loyalist List, but not on the original U.E. List. The names of his family members appear on the Subsistence List. His children were not granted land as descendents of a Loyalist.

In later years, Susannah chose an Asseltine as her second husband. A stone, erected by her son, William Martin, marks her grave in Wilton cemetery. Her stone records that she died Feb. 20, 1844, aged 82 years.

Langhorn records also list a Mary Martin, born to Amos and Susannah. She was baptized, along with James, Amos, Susannah (Annie?) and William, Sept. 15, 1794.

Rev. John Langhorn, officiated at the burial of Deborah Ball, September, 1793, and it is recorded as the first church function on Amherst Island.

Now don't get excited,
And don't be mislead,
I mean on the clothesline,
And not in bed.

PHILIP SWITZER, U.E., m. Patience Rose (daughter of Mathias Rose, Sr. U.E.

Philip Switzer served as a corporal in Jessup's Rangers. His brothers, John who settled in Loborough and Christopher, who settled near Switzerville, do not qualify as Loyalists. His parents, Peter and Anna Marie (Guier) were descendents of the families who left the area around Assenheim in Germany because of religious persecution. They found refuge near Limerick, Ireland, and lived there for some time before coming to America. Margaret, sister of Peter, was married to the noted Methodist preacher, Philip Embury.

Philip Switzer and John Card were two of the earliest settlers in the Township of Camden and four of Philip's children married into the Card family. Philip's children were:

1. John, b. 1784
2. Peter, 1786-1864, m. Lavinia Elizabeth (Mary) Card
3. Christopher, b. 1788, m. Hannah Leada
4. Mathias, b. 1788, m. Eleanor Bell, b. 1791
5. Norris, 1792-1865, m. Martha Collier, b. 1793.
6. Philip, b. 1794, m. Mary Collins, b. 1807
7. Samuel G., b. 1796, married Abigail, b. 1800. Abigail was a daughter of John Card, and we descended from Samuel and Abigail.
8. David, b. 1798, m. Fanny Card, b. 1808
9. Sarah Anna, m. Ernest Drader
10. Jane, m. Amos Card
11. Daniel, b. 1806, m. Sarah Williams, b. 1806

On one of our trips to Germany to visit our daughter Susan, we were fortunate to be included in the passenger list of visitors who journeyed by bus to a point in Germany to embark on a cruise of the Rhine. We passed through the Assenheim area and it is one of great beauty and fertility. We drove through hundreds of acres of vineyards and corn fields. The owners now live in the villages or in tiny communes almost completely isolated from the outside world. In some places paved paths run hither and yon through the vineyards, and the attendants use bicycles to tend their crops.

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the problem of the origin of life. It is shown that the problem is one of the most important and most difficult in the history of science.

2. The second part of the paper is devoted to a detailed discussion of the various theories of the origin of life. It is shown that the most plausible theory is the one which assumes that life originated from non-living matter.

VI ANDREW MEEKS FAMILY:

Again the records found in the old book do not agree with the Census record. However, when we take into consideration the fact that few of the early settlers could read or write, and the means of keeping an account of time must have been extremely primitive, we cannot expect perfection. To date, I have found no baptismal records of any of the Joel Meeks family.

From the 1861 Census of Camden Township, Andrew's year of birth is given as 1829, and his wife, 1829. They had the following children: Solan, Bertrand, Angelina, Ann and Bella. Another son, Nathan, born March 20th, 1861, must have been born after the Census "taker" arrived. The above-mentioned children were all born to Andrew and his first wife, Sabrina Thompson. Following her death, he married a Mrs. Storey, who already had a family by her first marriage. One of Mrs. Storey's children, a Mrs. Lockwood, accompanied by my grandmother, Mrs. James Meeks, visited the family at Evan's Mills N.Y. while my grandmother was living. We believe that Andrew is buried at Evan's Mills.

A son Dexter, born to Andrew and Mrs. Storey, has already been mentioned in the Joel Meeks family tree.

I have been unable to find any records re Andrew's first family, except Nathan, who married Perminda Barclay and four sons and four daughters were born to them:

William, Rose, Jessie and Susan died young.

Margaret - married Frank Jackson - no children. Frank is deceased.

Margaret will be 92 years of age in Sept./80, and it is a pleasure to telephone her at Chaumont, N.Y. and converse with her. She resides alone. She has related to me that the Meeks family were of English descent. Her father often entertained her grandfather Andrew, and being a strict Quaker, no person was allowed to speak during a meal until he spoke. Often Andrew said nothing, so the entire meal was eaten in silence. Mrs. Jackson was frightened by his austerity.

Dexter - married Sybil Zimmerman and had Mildred, who married Irving Russell; Marion, who married Earl Hall; Willard, who married Betty Sweeney; Robert, who married Helen Steels; and Thelma, who married Clifford Stevens. Dexter is deceased.

Harry - married Bernadette Hill, and had Glenn, who married Gladys Hamilton; Harry Jr; and June, who married Leo E. West. June is at present living near New York city, and Bernadette lives in a near-by apartment. Harry is deceased.

John - married Anna Loveland, and they have Donald, who married Bev. Calhoon; Sharon, who married Vic. Capone, and Adrian,

VII FAMILY OF ELIZABETH MEEKS:

Elizabeth Meeks, seventh child of Joel and Elizabeth Meeks, married her first cousin Dennison Meeks. Sometimes spelled with one "n". Sometimes just "Denis".

The records found in the old book and those of the family bible of Dennison Meeks, do not bear the same dates. Nor do the family records always agree with the Census records.

The family bible records are:

Father - Denison Meeks, born Feb. 20, 1826, New York State
Mother - Elizabeth, born Nov. 8, 1834

Beriah, born Aug. 25 - 1847
Rosannah, born Oct. 9, 1848
Martha, born July 8, 1850
Rilla, born Nov. 25, 1851
Amelia, born May 17, 1853
Fatima, born Oct. 9, 1854
Davis, born July 17, 1856
Allen Retan, born May 24, 1858 (called Tanhill)
Two boys died between 1858 - 1861 - twins
Andrew, born Jan. 6, 1861
Josephine, born Feb. 18, 1863
Edward, born Aug. 27, 1865
Caroline, born Feb. 20, 1870.

From Census records: Eight of these children were supposed to have been born in Camden, prior to their moving to Cloyne: Beriah, Rosannah, Ann, Rilla, Amelia, Fatima and Davis. I do not know which of the others made up the eight.

From records, I have learned: Denison Meeks was one of the first settlers in the Cloyne area. He built his house on the property now owned by his grandson, Oscar Meeks. Situated high on a hill, it overlooks Highway #41 and Mazine Lake, and is a beautiful location on a summer's day. Food was scarce in those days, and often the meal consisted of potatoes and salt. Elizabeth Meeks, often cried because she did not like potatoes. Denis Meeks bought a cow when he moved to Cloyne. Soon after he purchased a yoke of oxen, and Elizabeth made butter from the cream and put it away to have for visitors. Like all of the early Meeks men, Denison was strong and powerful. He thought nothing of walking to Napanee and carrying a bag of flour home on his back.

Elizabeth Meeks' death is remembered by her grandson, James Meeks of the Shel-drake road, north of Cloyne. From his oral direction, my cousins Eva and Ruth and I were able to find her grave in Flinton Cemetery. The tombstone records:

Elizabeth, wife of Denison Meeks, died Feb. 20, 1881, aged 49 years, 3 mos, 12 days.

This date agrees with the Census records, which state that Denison Meeks was born in 1825, Elizabeth, 1831.

Following the death of Elizabeth, Denison married Matilda Hales, mother-in-law of Beriah Meeks. Dennison died July 29, 1876; Matilda died, March 23, 1908. They are buried in the Dempsey Cemetery, north-east of Cloyne. At the time of Elizabeth's death this cemetery was not yet open, and she was taken about ten miles for burial.

6. Annie - Sheldon Hawley

During the past week, May 30, 1980, I have received two letters from members of the Meeks family:

1. A letter from Mrs. Patricia Cole of R.R. #3 Demorestville, Ontario. Mrs. Cole is a direct descendent of Ed Meeks, Sr., through his son Ed. Jr., and his wife Dylina Deline. Her records state the name to be Diana Lavina Deline.
2. Francis Crebas of Red Deer, Alberta. Mr. Crebas' letter was of special interest. He is a descendent of Joel Sr., through his son Andrew, and his first wife, Sabrina Thompson. Andrew's daughter Angelina, (who along with most of her brothers and sisters could not be found) born, 2 Nov., 1853, d. 25 March, 1935. She was married to George Hanes and is buried only four miles from my home--at Morven.

I trust that the information recorded in these pages may be of considerable assistance to those who may be researching. My original intention was to make this information available during the year of 1984, when the United Empire Loyalists' Association of Canada will be celebrating the Bi-centennial of the Loyalist Landings. With added information supplied by those who purchase this book, we may be able to supply a much larger edition for 1984. Will you help me?

Total proceeds from the sale of this book will be donated to the Endowment Fund, established by the Bay of Quinte Branch, U.E.L. Association of Canada for educational purposes, and to the Bell Rock Mill, which is in the little village where I was born.

God Bless!

65th wedding anniversary . . . in hospital

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Meeks of Bell Rock will celebrate their 65th wedding anniversary Jan. 1. But, for the second consecutive year, the couple will have to celebrate the occasion in a Kingston hospital room.

Last year Mrs. Etta Meeks underwent an abdominal aneurism operation on New Year's Eve. The operation for a blocked artery was considered critical for an 88-year-old to receive. Yet she pulled through and was hale and hearty until several weeks ago when she fell and broke her hip. The latest hospitalization has Mrs. Meeks down, but according to her family her spirits are high. She is mending nicely they state.

The couple was married on New Year's Day, 1907, at Mrs. Meeks' brother's home in Harrowsmith. The former Etta (Reppart) Snider was attended by her sister, Mrs. Jennie Alton, while Mrs. Meeks' brother Leonard was best man. The attendants both live at present in Kingston.

After their wedding the couple farmed at Sharbot Lake, Oak Flats (near Verona) and Bell Rock. Mr. Meeks, 86, helped neighbors thrash this year and still works a large vegetable garden.

The couple had five children: Mrs. Crawford (Gwen)

Smith, Bath; Mrs. Freeman (Dell) White, Kingston; Oakland, Bell Rock; Maitland, Verona and Leland, Barrie.

There are 18 grandchildren and six great grandchildren.
